INTRODUCTION

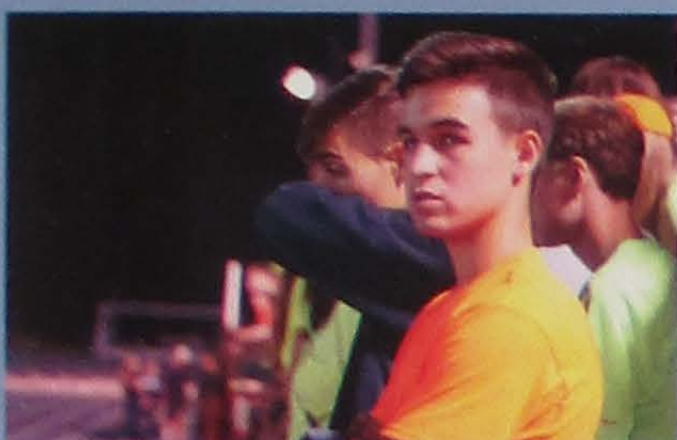

Over the years we have built a foundation, one that lets us create. We have developed traditions from coaches, teachers, students, and even parents, many of whom were once students themselves at Ames High. We are a community that supports each other with school pride and dedication. We are Locally Grown by the best teachers, community, and student body.

Summer

Summer is the time where students can relax. They don't have math work, reading, speeches, or tests to worry about. Many students traveled out of the state or out of the country, while others stay home and make the best of it.

Every summer Mr. Mooney takes a group of students to Uganda. The group of students stay in Uganda for 3 weeks with no phones or other technology. One of the main reasons they go to Uganda is to help build schools for the children there. Every student that goes on the trip enjoys the time they spend there and comes away with a new perspective on the world.

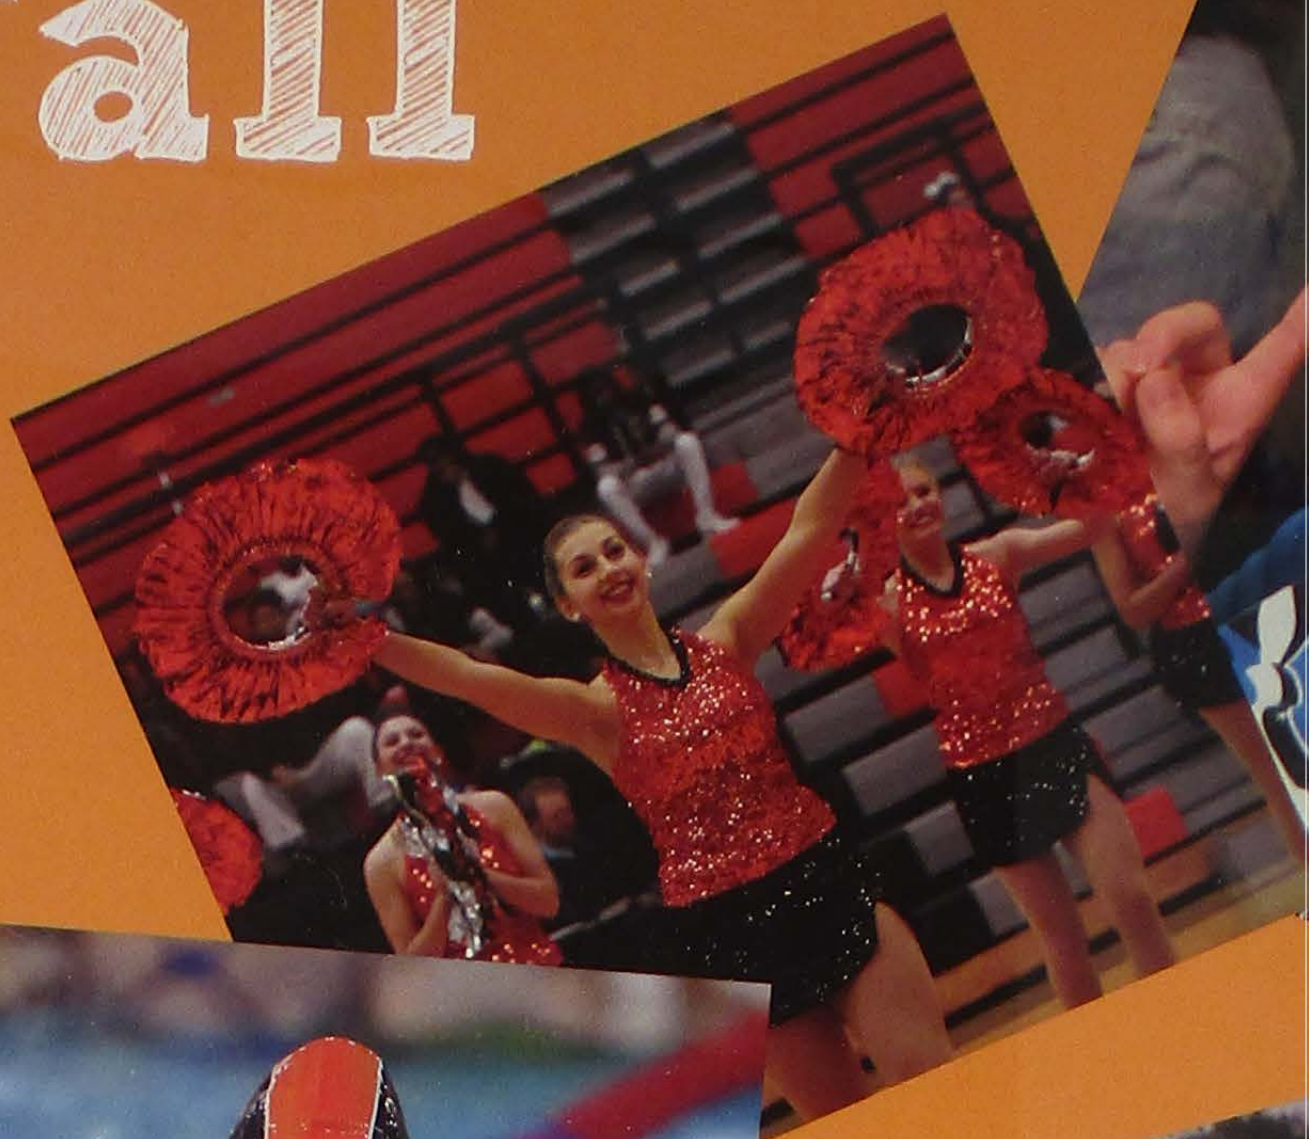

Every summer students go to the state fair either to compete or to enjoy it. Finding Dory came out this summer and the art students gathered together to watch it.

This summer a group of students went to Germany for 3 weeks. They spent time living with a host family and experienced their daily lives.

Fall

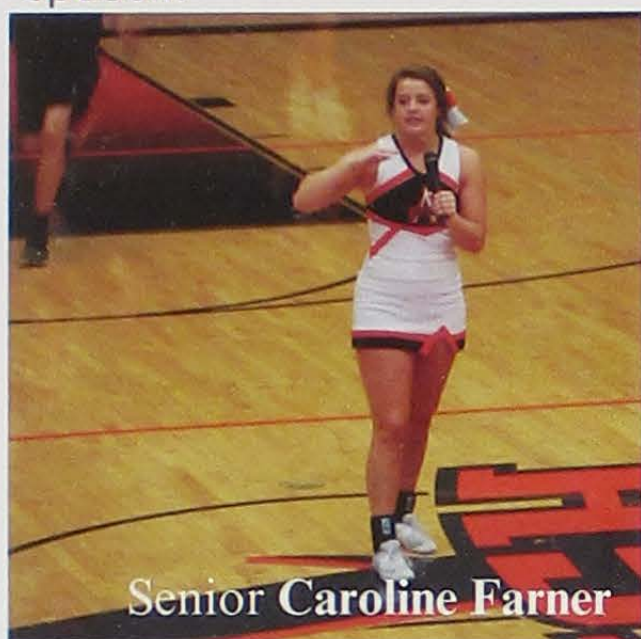

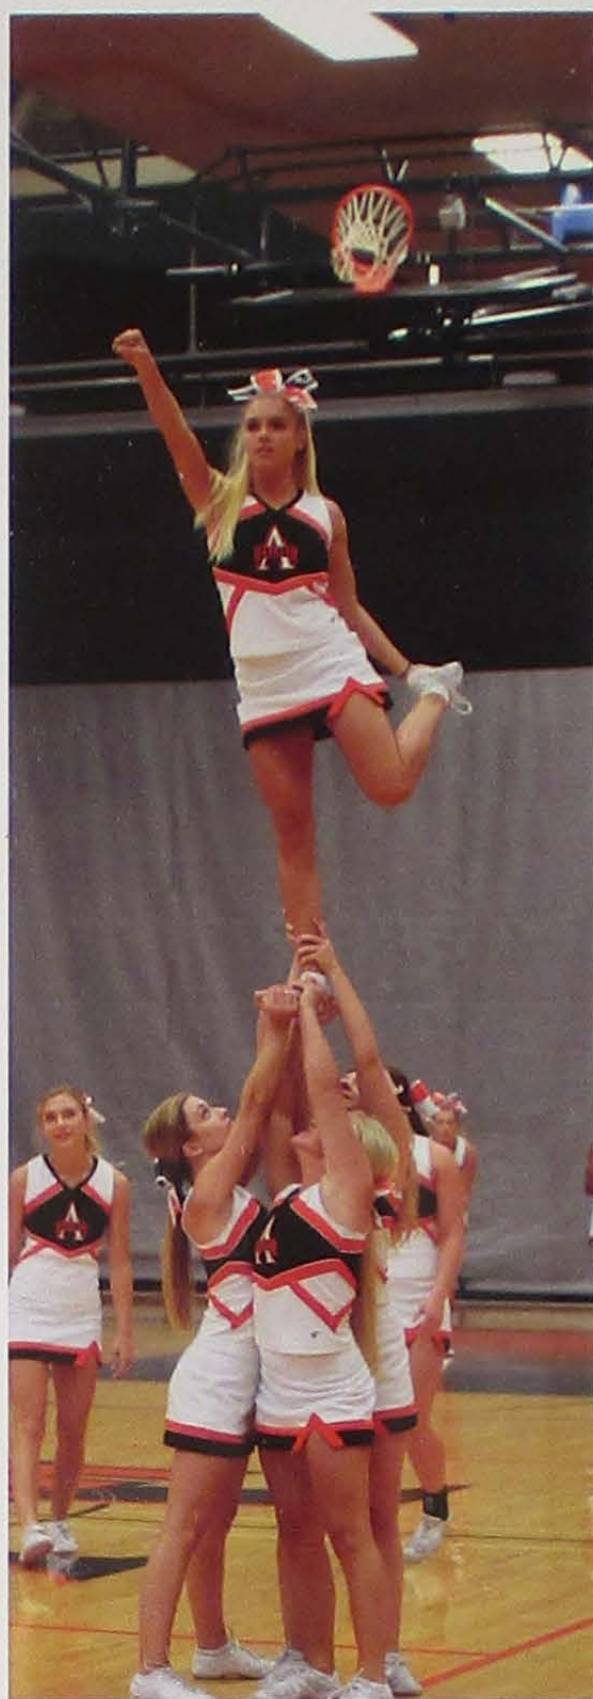

School Kick-off

2016 - 17

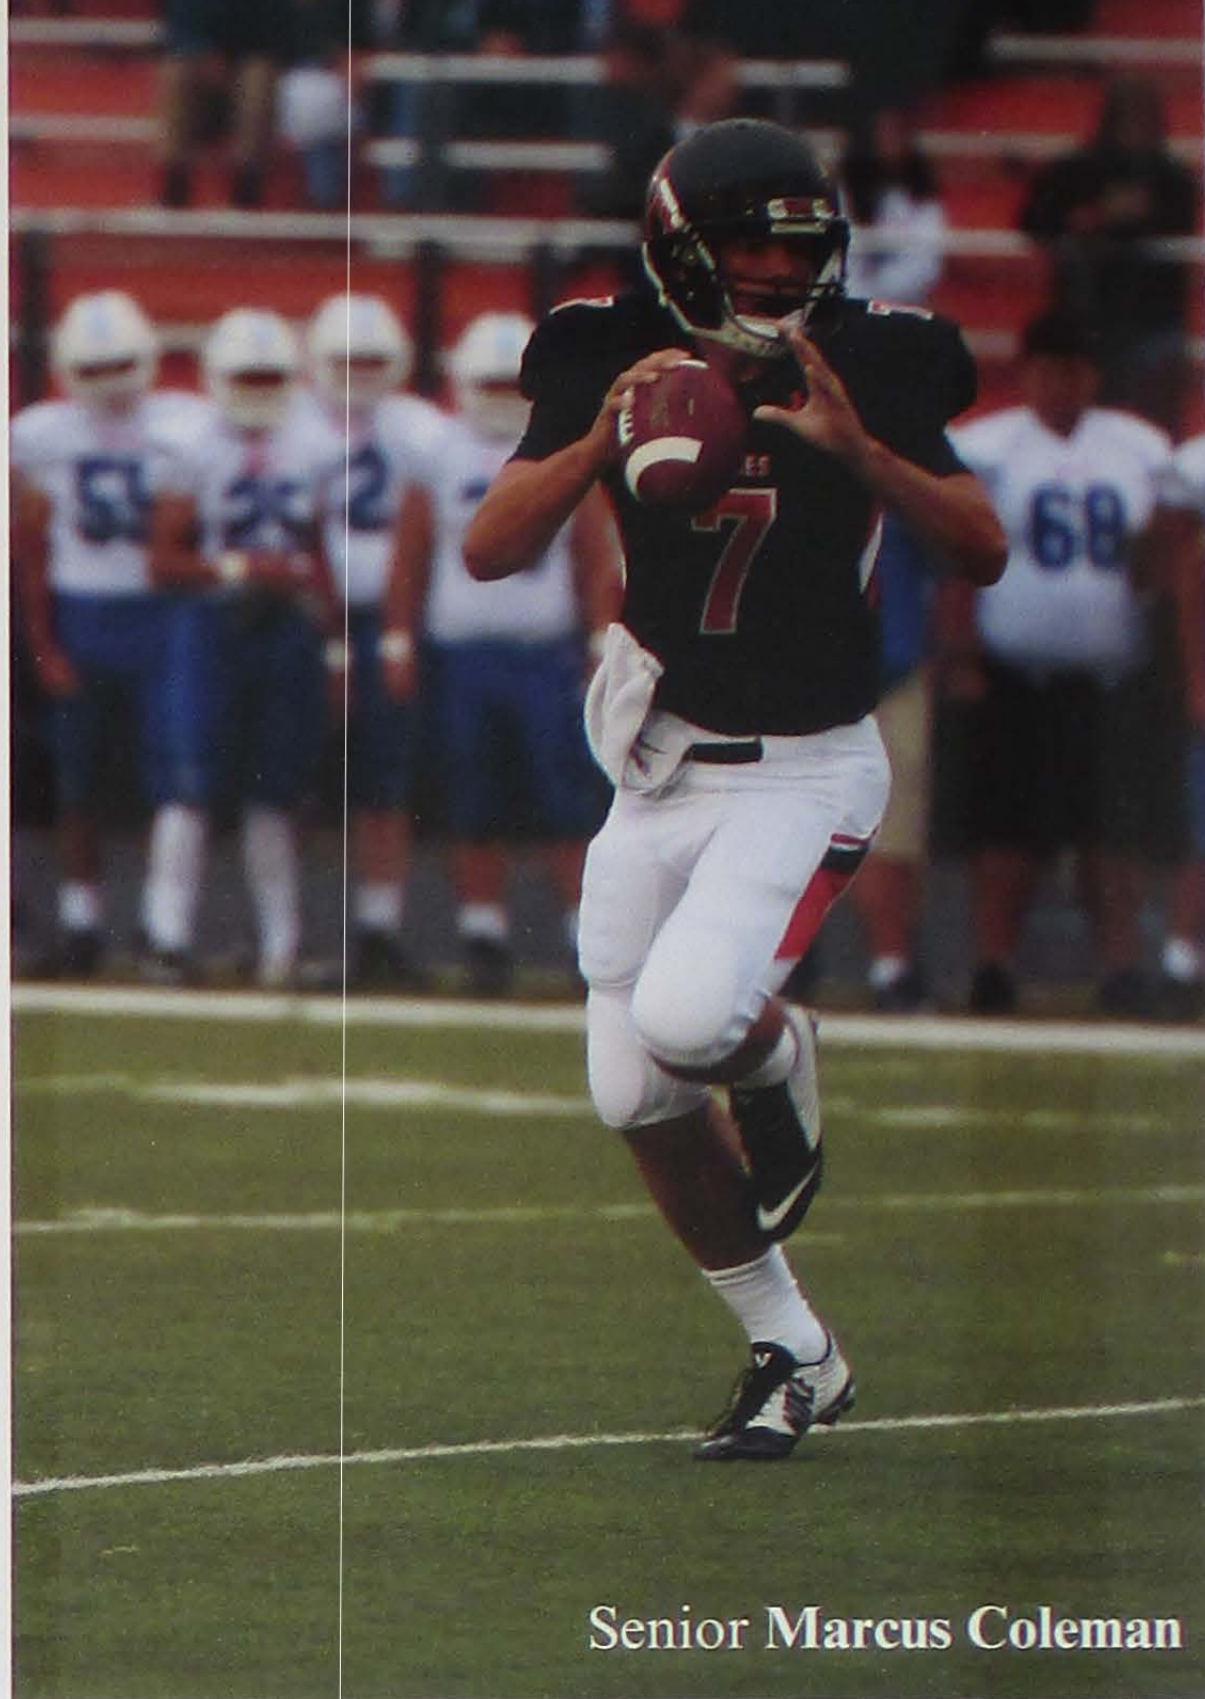

The school year kicked off with a bang as students packed the halls and rekindled old friendships. "I was excited to see my friends that I hadn't seen during the summer vacation," sophomore Evan Lewis said.

Even new students were excited about the new year, especially after kick-off assembly. "It got me hyped for the rest of the school year," freshman Easter Nybong said.

In typical fashion, Spence started the year in style, leaving with a literal mic drop after an impassioned speech.

Sports Sports

and more sports

The beginning of the school year was kicked off with multiple fall sports and lots of excitement. Perhaps most notable was teacher Kirk Schmaltz heroic efforts on Monday to put out a car fire at the cross country course. Girls cross country members were out on the course to practice after school when the accident occurred. When the car started smoking, he stopped a CyRide bus, grabbed the fire extinguisher from it, and proceeded to empty it on the car. Eventually, officials arrived and took care of the situation. Sports are a good way to be involved, and have fun throughout the year.

Sports like football, cheer, cross country and volleyball are also fun ways to stay active and meet new people. Many forge lifelong friendships through sports.

Sports are also part of high school culture, whether you're a fan or not. The Friday night crowds that come to watch the football game, the cheerleaders, and the infamous marching band, have grown every year. It's part of what makes Ames High family.

Muddy Run

On Thursday the girls Cross Country team raced through mud and mayhem for a sixth place finish in Cedar Rapids.

"I felt like I was drowning in the ocean," senior Achala Thippeswamy said.

Figuring out the best way to remove the mud proved to be a difficult task. "Most people used face wipes to wipe the mud off of their legs, but by the time I got to them, we were out of wipes. I was dehydrated, but I used my water to wash off the mud. That night I put my shoes in the dryer and then the day after, Coach Lee said that was the worst thing to do," senior Tala Salti said.

While it was a nightmare at the time, it is sure to be one of the most memorable meets of the year.

Following the reveal of the 2016 Homecoming court, Ames High continued its tradition of waking up the court in the middle of the night to announce they have been chosen by their fellow classmates. The Wake Up Committee teepees the yards and houses of the court as well as recording their abrupt wake up for a video that is shown at the annual homecoming assembly.

Cirque Du Soleil

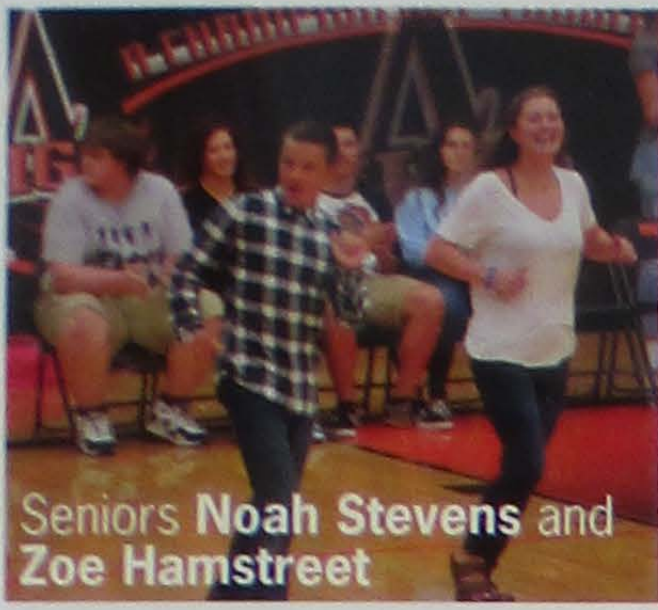

The festive week of Homecoming 2016 started out with students walking into the entrance of the school, which was painted as a giant circus tent. Inside, paper cutouts of trapeze artists and colorful streamers hung festively from the ceiling.

To start off the week, students twinned with each other. Monday's opening assembly was filled with interesting dares and a few truths as the court sought to leave an impression on the student body. Tuesday followed with class colors, and Wednesday held some creative costumes for ER day.

The coronation assembly was held on Friday, crowning Noah Stevens and Michaela Twito as the 2016 Homecoming King and Queen. On Saturday, students finished the week by attending the annual dance held in the school gym.

During halftime the student section switched to neon shirts and glow sticks to cheer on the team in a close game against Fort Dodge.

Volleyball

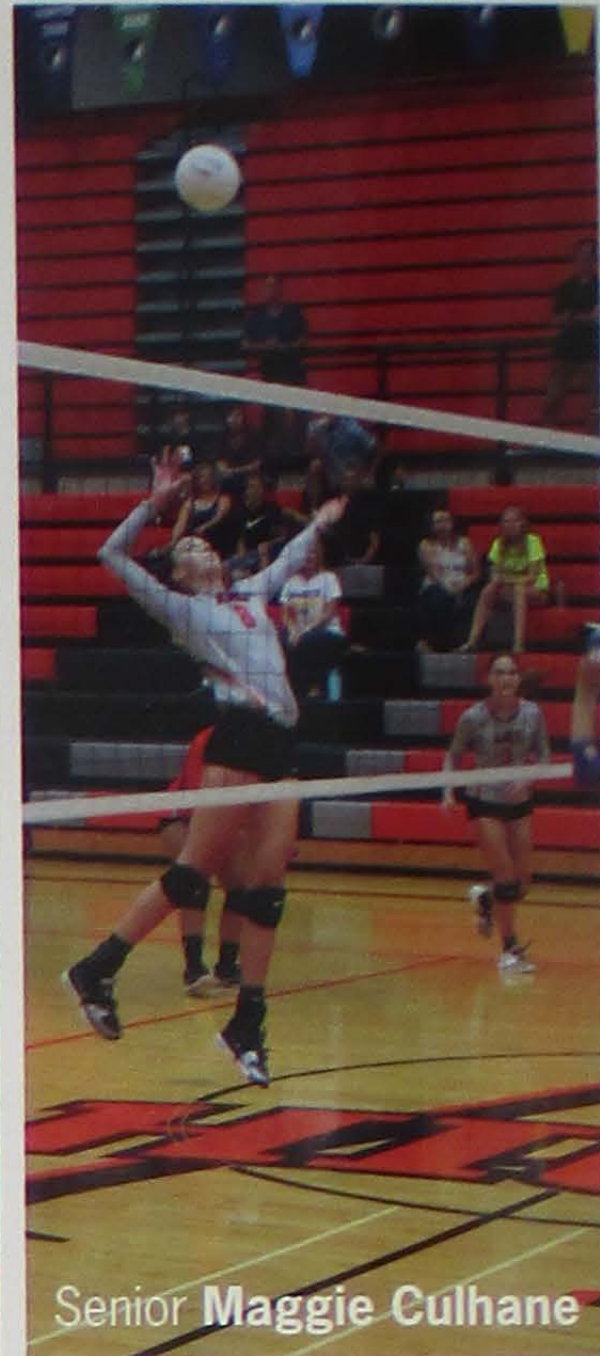

The AHS Volleyball team is a tight knit group as reflected in their comments about the 2016 season. Madeline Spikes said "I have always loved the sport of volleyball simply because it's just a lot of fun to play. But most of all, I really enjoy playing with my team." Josie Stegman had similar feelings saying that "some of my best friends are people that I've gotten to know through volleyball. This year, Ames High volleyball welcomed new coach Peter Cruz for the 2016 season. Senior volleyball players, Josie Stegman, Madeline Spikes, and Maggie Culhane all had a lot of good things to say about Coach Cruz, such as helping the team to realize their potential, have confidence, and be competitive as a team. Maggie Culhane noted that "Coach Cruz has brought a new level of play to Ames High Volleyball. He made our program better as a whole and I really enjoy having him as a coach."

Flooding

This week, on Thursday, Ames received over five inches of rain. Both teachers and students had homes that were affected by the deluge. 13th Street, Grand, and Dayton were a couple of the many roads that flooded. Cars were almost completely submerged in the water near Jack Trice Stadium. This flooding caused a lot of problems for many residents in Ames, with the common problem of basement flooding. There has not been a flood like this in a while, which is why this came as a surprise.

The Buzz about Bees

Bee Club is a new club that has been introduced to Ames High this year. Its co-founders, juniors Eileen Murray and Deeksha Sarda, started the club after doing a project about bees in AP Bio. "We were very interested and wanted to research why it is important to save them," Sarda said. The two attribute the club's popularity to their advertising campaign. "We spread the word mainly through the club fair and forcing our friends to join," Murray said. The club plans to build pollinating hotels and donate them to parks around Ames.

Hockey Begins

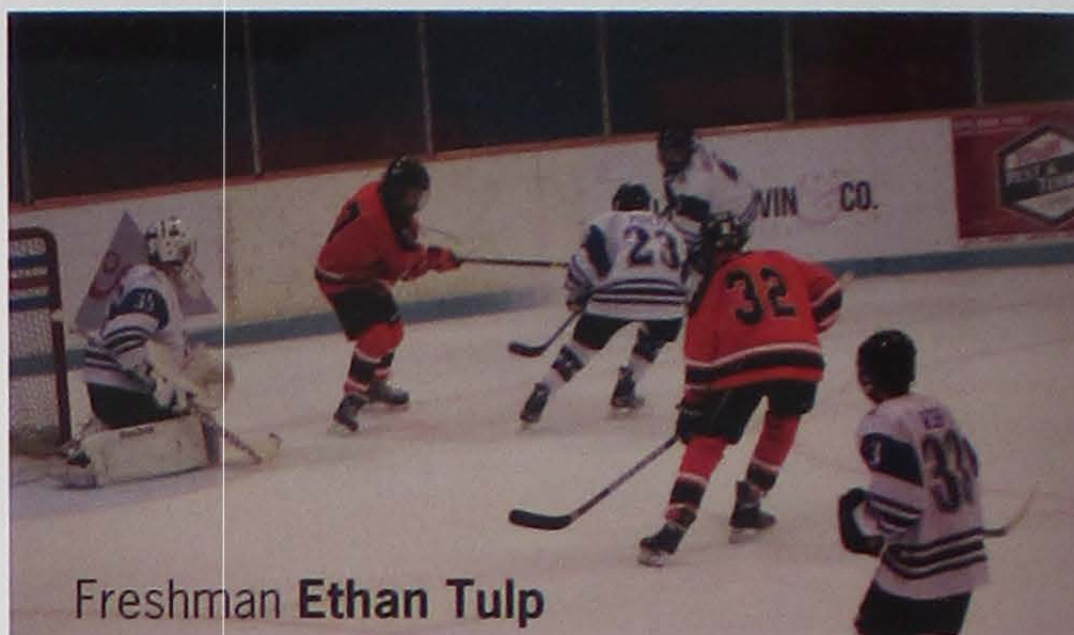

The Ames club hockey team started their preseason games in Des Moines a few weeks before their first games. While they open the season ranked 12th out of 12 teams, they still see positives: they can really only go up! Also, many teams will look past them and not be expecting the fight they are about to get. The team, who pulls players from all throughout Story County, is poised to make a jump in the rankings as their young players are anxious to prove their mettle.

It's The Great Pumpkin Ames High

Every year, fall is kicked off with the openings of pumpkin patches and apple orchards. At these orchards it is common to see a lot of Ames High students there enjoying the fall weather, grabbing some locally grown food, getting lost in a corn maze and picking out the perfect pumpkins.

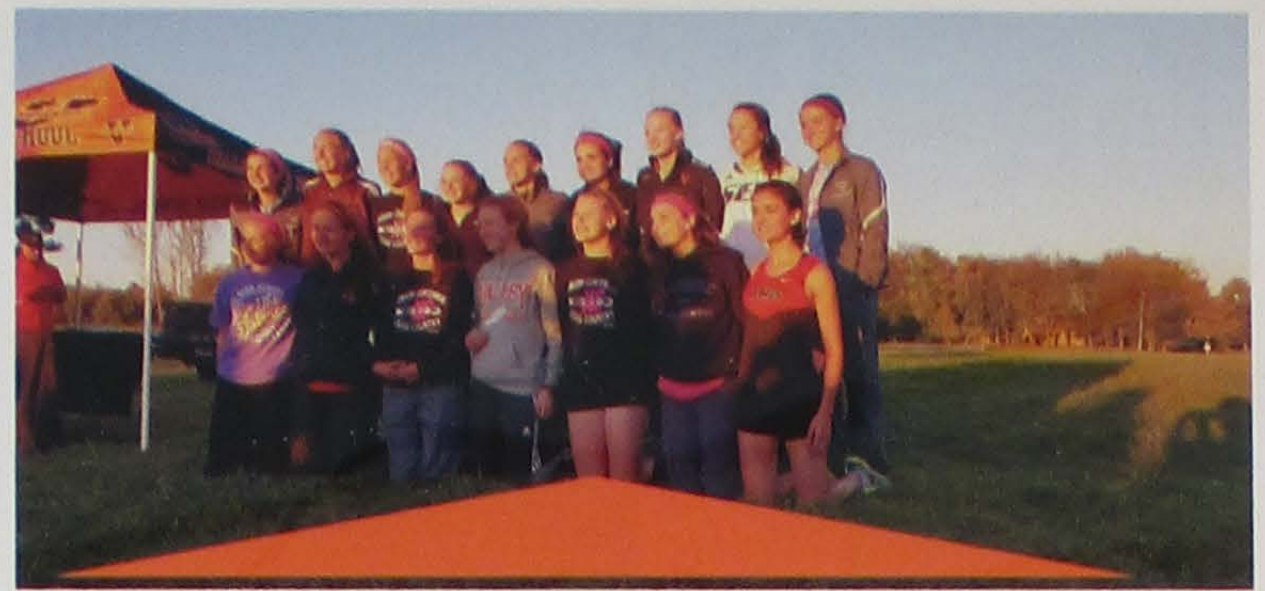

"Corn is yellow, Apples are red, go to the pumpkin patch, and get out of bed," seniors Allyson Goodman and Andy Kim said.

Finding pumpkins and picking apples is a favorite activity for students to enjoy this time of year, before the fall season comes to an end. It is the right blend of getting outside and being with friends, and it's even inexpensive.

Juniors Kear Kear, Tyler Carney, and sophomore Garang Akok made the all conference team.

Seniors Katelyn Moore and Katie Fukushima finished in the top 16 runners at the conference meet, making the all conference team.

The JV boys and girls cross country teams ran their last race of the season this week. The day before the race, tradition was upheld when the 25 senior girls on this year's team gave speeches to the team at Brookside before their spaghetti dinner. This year's conference meet was held at Valley.

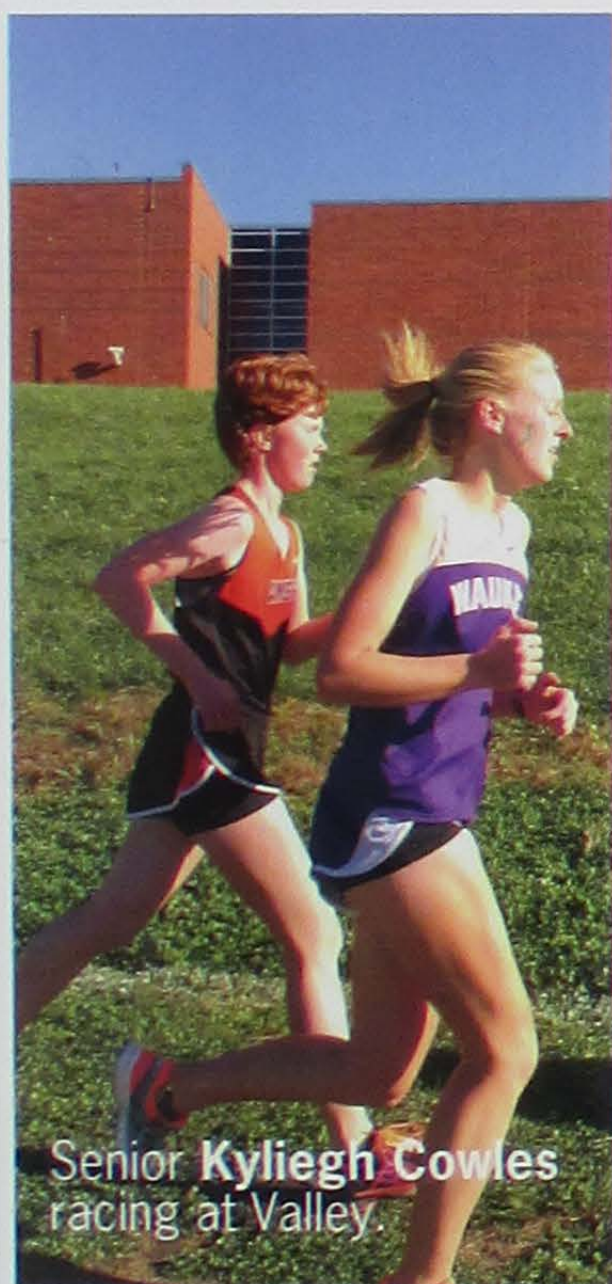

Seniors said goodbye to the high school sport that some had been running in for the past 4 years. Emotions were on a spectrum between relief that the season was finally ending, and sadness that the team would no longer be together. Ames finished strong with JV girls placing 5th, JV boys placing 3rd, varsity girls placing 3rd, and varsity boys placing 5th. Ames also had 5 runners make the All-Conference team.

Last Hurrah

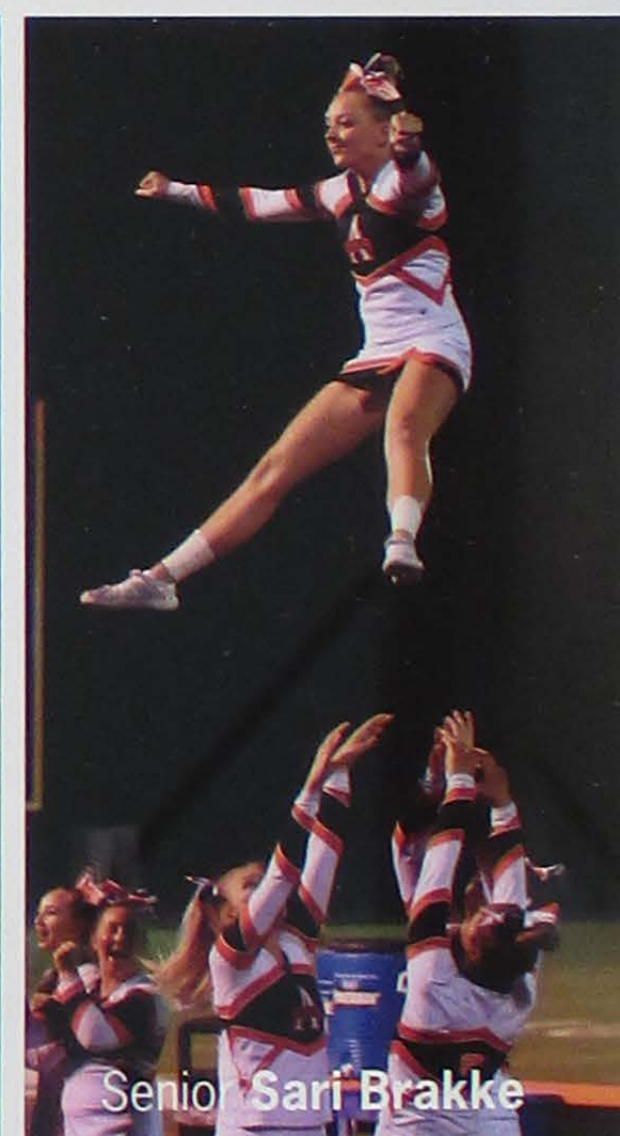

On the last Friday Night Lights of the year, AHS band members gathered to hype it up one last time before their final performance. Seniors rallied up their little apprentices and built enough courage to deliver a heartfelt goodbye. Following years' worth of tradition, this year's seniors were able to pass on the speeches and memories that make AHS band so special. Varying from the SAX chants to the drumline's pre-game speeches, members of this year's band formed memories that will last a lifetime.

Students from DECA attended the Fall Leadership Conference (FLC) in Des Moines on Sunday. During this conference they listened to inspirational speakers, participated in a power hour of community service, and even completed obstacle courses at Camp Dodge. It was a great team building event and helped DECA members gain inspiration as they prepared for the competitive season. The Fall Leadership Conference is the first main event for members and is an annual event.

Girls State cross country qualifiers pose for a picture before the State Qualifying race. The race took place at Ankeny Centennial, which has a lot of hills within the course but is also very condensed and requires the runners to go back and forth throughout the course. Champions

This year was another year in the books for the swim and dive team. With their passion and over the top effort, these swimmers won their 6th title over the past seven years. The seniors were getting really emotional during this meet, knowing this is their last time competing state. "It feels really surreal but at the same time, really awesome. It's really cool to think that the last High School swim meet I swam in was state and we won! It's definitely something I'll hold close to my heart together. All the tears, hugs, and smiles that day makes it that much harder to say goodbye." said senior Grace Snyder. A lot of memories and friendships were made from the long bus rides and the constant pasta dinners. These are things that these swimmers will never forget, especially when the next season rolls around and they aren't competing with their high school team.

Ames High cheer competed at the state cheer championships at the Iowa State Fair Grounds in Des Moines. The squad placed 4th with a new routine.

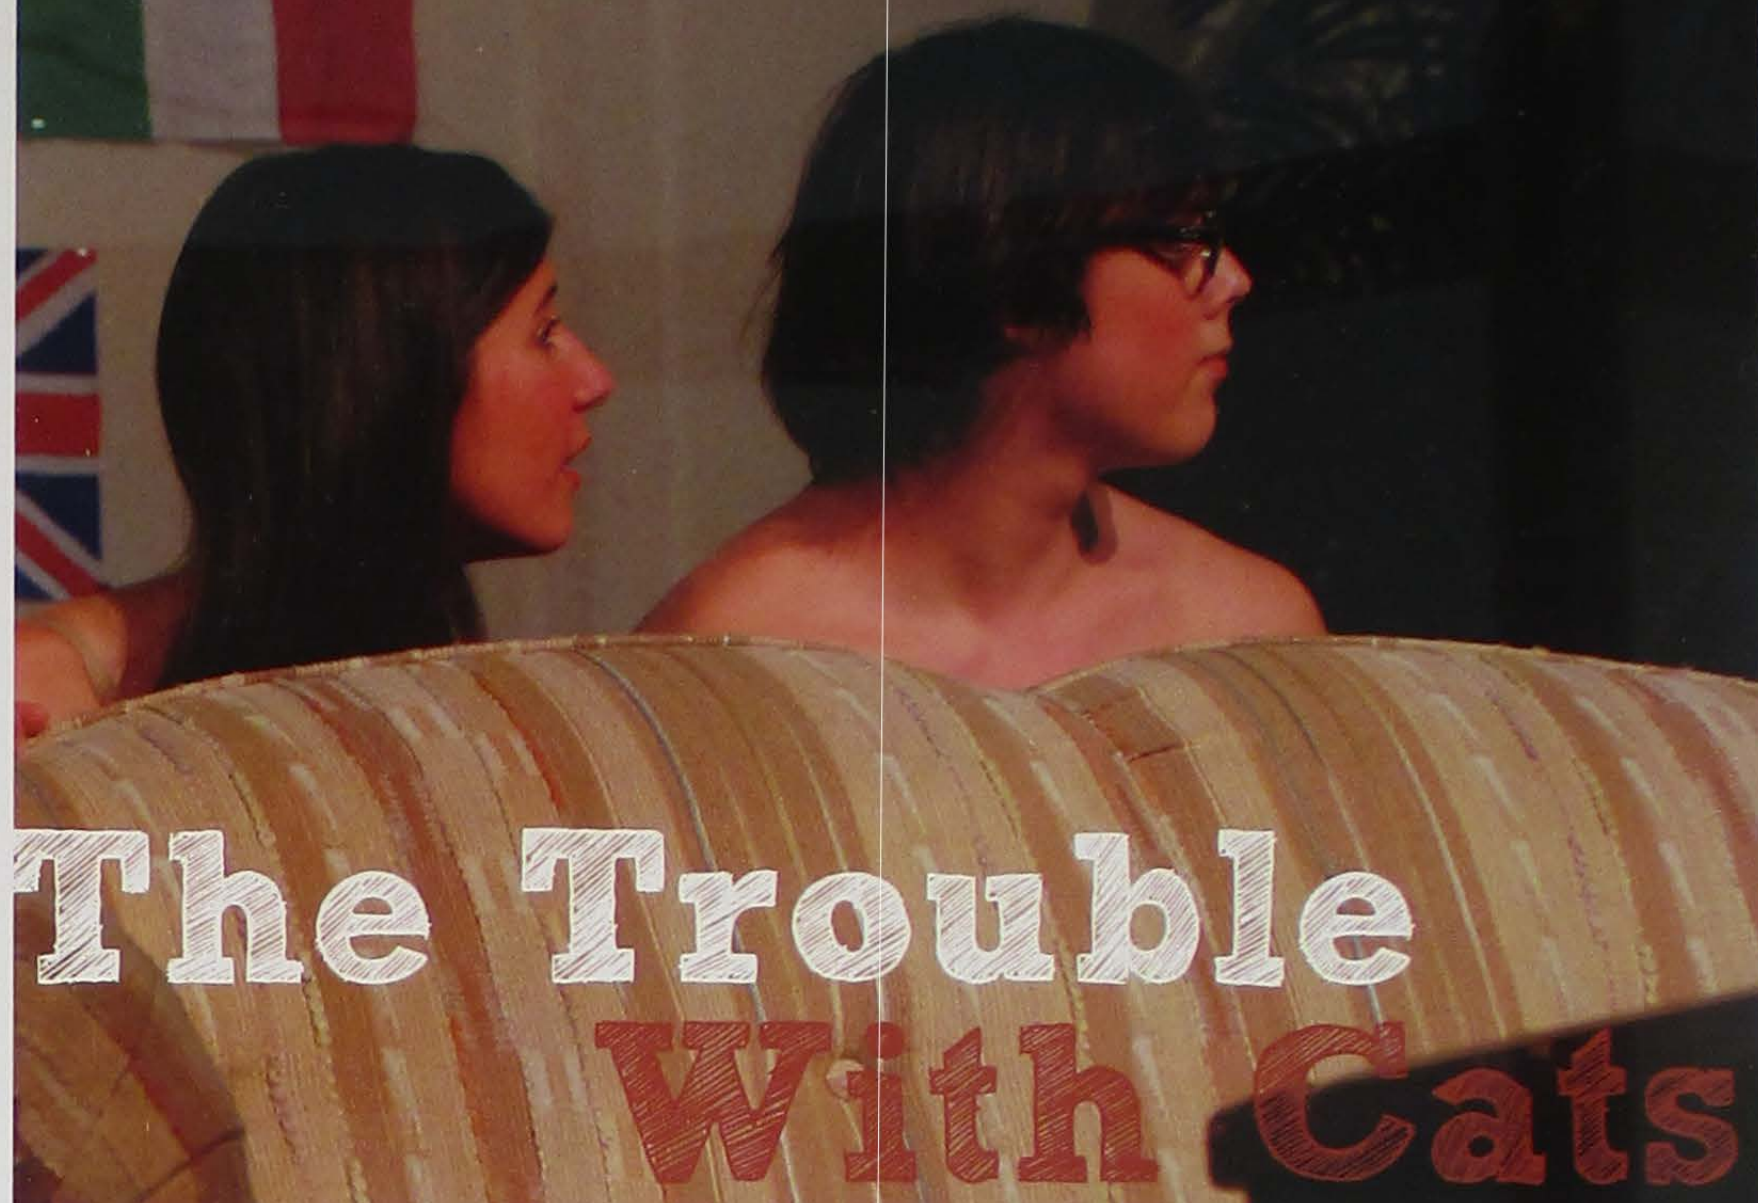

"This year our team was very special. Every swimmer on the state team played an important role at the meet. Our team consists of record holders, National qualifiers, and Future Division 1 swimmers. When all of this talent is put together there is the potential for something special to happen. Although sometimes it is difficult because we are all so competitive, in the end we are all there for each other. This past year, we became a big family."

Performing The Trouble With Cats, Ames High Students enjoyed being a part of this comedic rendition. "I thought the play was a great experience! We were all so happy with the final product," sophomore Jonathan Watt said. For this performance to be a success, actors and tech crew had to spend hours working to perfect their craft. "We all got into our characters super well, and all of us vibed with each other and got along. The set was also super crazy, and we're really thankful for all the techies," junior Clara Mikovec said. Once the actors received their roles, they were able to practice multiple methods to become their characters. "I did some method acting as I didn't take a shower for 2 weeks and I didn't shave," sophomore William Breshears said.

Post Election Perturbations

Junior Melissa Liu

Following the results of this year's heated election between presidential candidates Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump, a small group of students hosted a walk out during both lunch periods. It encouraged students to write positive messages in chalk on the sidewalk in front of the school. A few students also participated in a protest at Iowa State that occurred after school.

All State

Sisters Grace and Jana Kim embody the legacy of Ames High at All State. This is Jana's 4th year and Grace's 2nd participating in the All State orchestra. After rigorous practices and auditions, these talented string players from the Ames High music department had the honor of performing to a packed house at Hilton Coliseum on Saturday night. Being broadcast on IPTV, the best players and singers of the state were gathered here to put on a grand show. Ames High Band directors, Mr. Buttermore and Mr. Ewan were pleasantly surprised to find out that the number of Ames High students who earned a spot in All State grew again from the number last year. They thought that last year's number of students accepted into All State was unlikely to happen again, since it had never been that high before. AHS students proved that the record was meant to be broken. The music department hopes it will continue to provide some of the most musically talented to All State in the future.

Senior Jana and Sophomore Grace Kim stop to celebrate yet another All State music performance. The sisters shared the floor for the second consecutive year.

Basketball

Ames High Girls Basketball played a tough game against Des Moines East. This year's debut game featured some key returning varsity players from last year. Last season's top two scoring players, senior Ryan Weiss and junior Amara Lipsey, helped the team to a strong start and a decisive victory over the visiting Scarlet Indians. The final score was Ames over Des Moines East 62-44. The team is excited by the mix of youth and experience and is hoping to make it back to the Well this year!

SHEPH EVENT

Tucheze is an event coordinated by SHEPH, Students Helping to Eliminate Poverty and Hunger. This is an event that students find themselves looking forward to every year. Not only is it a great time to have fun with friends, but it is also for a good cause. Unlike most school dances, Tucheze is not a formal dance; instead, it has a theme. This year's theme was outer space glow in the dark. Many students went all out and were decked out in neon colors and space-inspired outfits. Each person donates five dollars when they enter, and the charitable money adds up really quickly. Fundraising also took place before the dance with the rice and beans lunch where students bought delicious lunch from students in the club. The hardest part for most SHEPH members was fasting for a full day. People pledged money to them for each hour they fasted. Overall, this was a successful event that raised a lot of money for their upcoming projects.

Even though the date of the dance was a day before Thanksgiving, the turn out was still great!

Magical Madrigal

This week one of Ames High's most anticipated musical performances returns to the stage. Madrigal takes place every year on the first few days of December, and consists of a select group of 28 singers performing in medieval style clothing singing Christmas Carols to a crowd. An incredible amount of work goes into the show each year and brings together not only musically inclined students, but students with all different interests as well. "Not only do the singers put in a lot of work preparing their a cappella repertoire, there are actors who prepare a short play, the brass and string ensembles, members of tech crew who do the lighting, and servers who serve all of the guests attending the dinner," senior Andrew Bryant said. Madrigal proved to be a success as all three shows were sold out.

Seen collecting and sorting old used papers, the 100th Green Butterfly Club consists of students contributing positively to the environment. Formed around ten years ago, students place baskets in each classroom for students to place their old worksheets or unwanted papers. Every Wednesday club members collect and organize the paper. The paper are then sent to a local business who recycles the paper. In the past, notepads were made from the recycled paper and were used as hall passes and various other things in the classroom. The company sadly quit making notepads but are still continuing to recycle papers and keep the earth healthy. Ames high aims green.

Winter Madness

Winter madness week is an exciting week to get people more excited for the holiday season. This week was kicked off with a pajama day on Monday followed by a sledding night later that day. Tuesdays theme was to wear a hat after paying one dollar. After this a movie night in the high school auditorium was held. Wednesday was the day to wear a favorite uniform to school where students got to sport their favorite teams. Thursday was dedicated to wearing crazy socks. Students went all out with fuzzy, long, and different patterned socks. Wearing ugly sweaters was saved to the last day, Friday. There was a lot of holiday spirit as the week started to approach its much needed break. A long held Ames High tradition, the coffee house, was also held in the auditorium during both lunches this day.

During the last week of school before winter break, the madrigal cast sing in the hallways before classes as students enter to lighten the mood and motivate students for the week. From the POOL to the ICE

After almost a whole semester of hard work and stress the juniors, and seniors in Physics presented their projects on different routes (and how they are most effective) to Sam's Club at the Ames Public Library. Their presentations were open to the public. See opposite page for some of the presentations.

Meanwhile, the boys swimming team and the Ames Hockey team both had busy weeks competing. The swim team cruised to an easy home win, while the hockey team showed its resolve by almost completing a dramatic comeback on the ice.

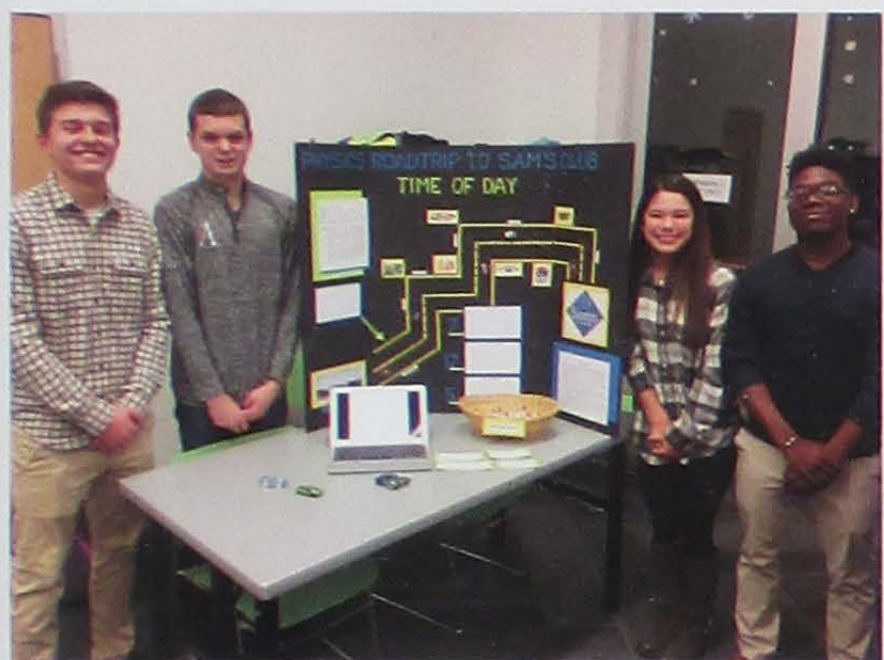

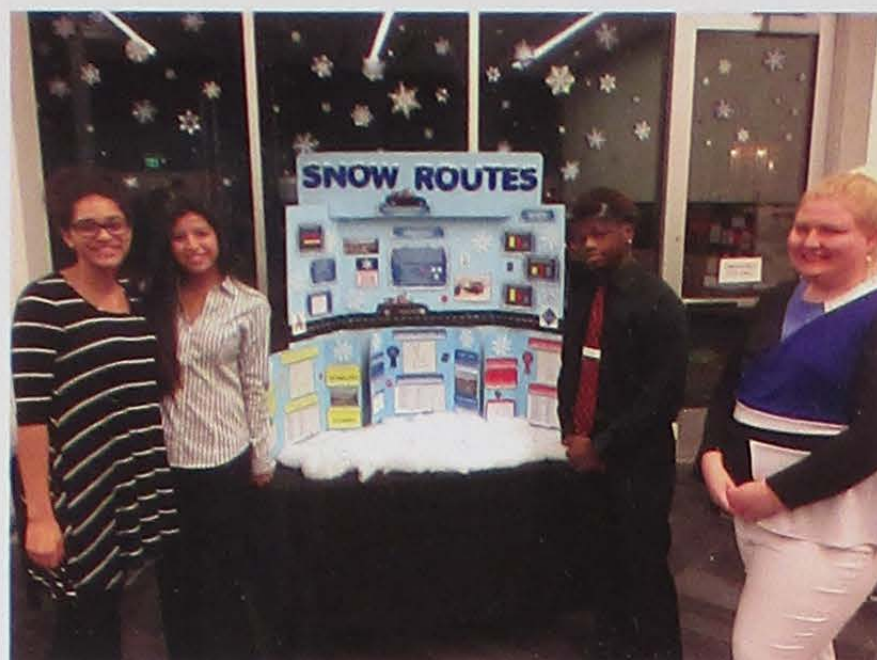

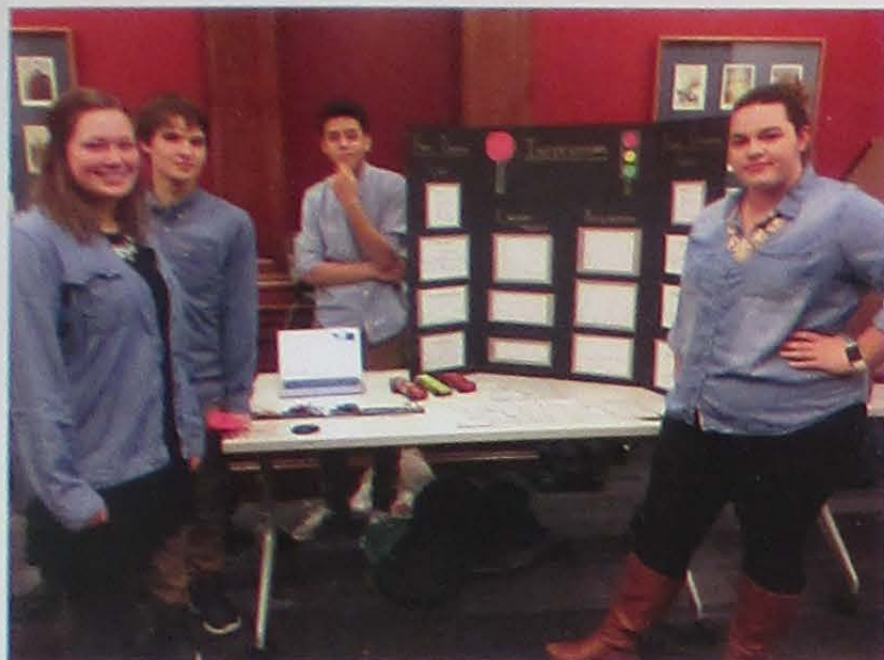

Ames High continues to be a school that balances the academic with the athletics and the arts.

Everyone know that matches are where the glory lies, but championships are actually won early morning at practices, when no one is there to cheer you on and your peers are sleeping comfortably in their warm beds. Luckily, these guys know a little something about the discipline of winning.

Musical Practice

This week, as opening night approaches, the cast of the musical and the tech crew work hard to make sure everything goes smoothly. Practices started in December, and really picked up after Winter Break. They practice Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday mornings as well as every day after school. At these practices the cast goes through lines, songs, and choreography while the tech crew take care of the sets, sound, and lights. There is a lot of work that goes into a great show!

Team Neutrino

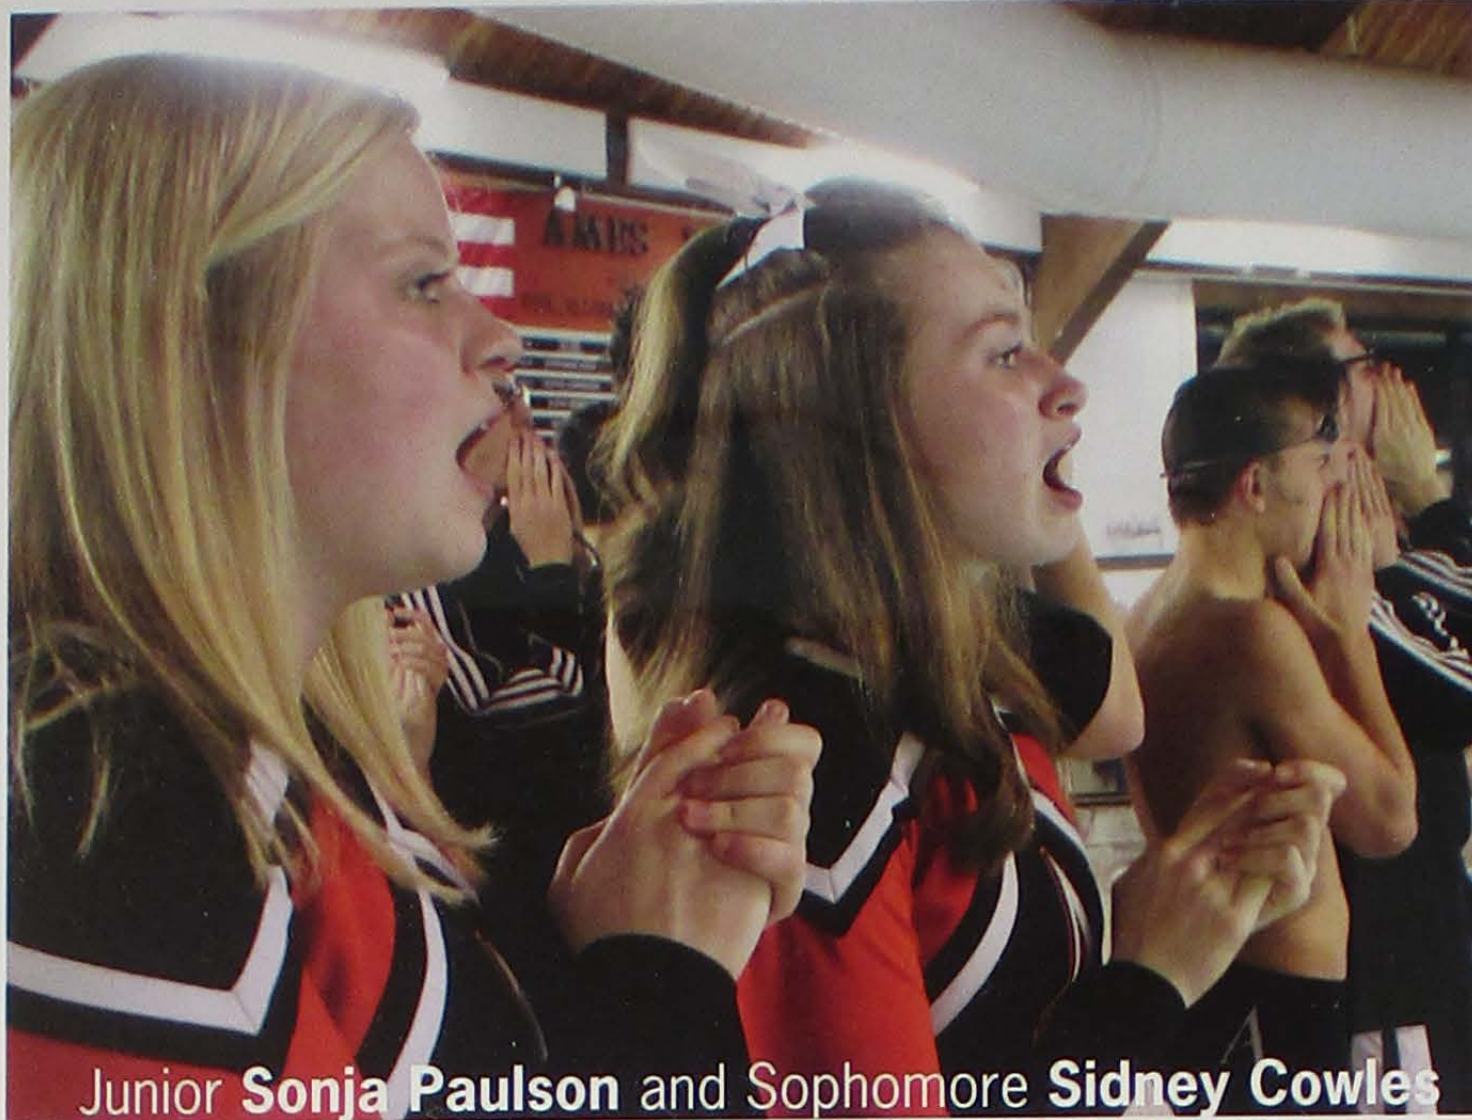

January marks the annual kick off for Team Neutrino, Story County's competitive robotics team that competes in the FIRST Robotic Competition events. The team has existed since 2012 and designs, builds, and then competes with its robot against teams from all over the nation. After a successful year last year, the team looks to build on that success and earn a spot at Nationals.

National Scholar's Institute

Freshman Pooja Kasiviswanathan was awarded a scholarship to the NSI's Astrobiology Residential Program, a prestigious award for which she competed against numerous national contenders. Congrats to Pooja for this distinguished award!

Can you spot the difference between the real ballers and iBall-ers? Neither can we. One of the biggest and most prestigious events that take place at Ames High is the intramural basketball tournament. Students gather their friends and sometimes strangers who happen to be good at basketball in order to dominate the competition and win the coveted iBall Champion shirt that comes along with winning.

Wrestling Tradition

The Wrestling team wrapped up their season on Thursday with a double dual against Des Moines Lincoln and Newton.

For most, it was a final brush up before Districts start a week from Saturday. For seniors, though, it's a significant marker that their high school career is almost over.

"It's weird thinking about this being the last one," senior Marcus Coleman said. "But I still have big goals for the season!"

Mega Bowl

The biggest Ames High Basketball event of the year is Mega Bowl. Students who have been supportive fans throughout the year, and even some who rarely attend events, come to this specific game to support our athletes. Traditionally, fans hold up newspapers in front of their faces and remain quiet, calling it a "silent night," until the eleventh point is scored by Ames. There's even a special trophy, which we've never lost.

High School Musical meets Ames High. Through an unfortunate scheduling coincidence, opening night of Guys and Dolls fell on the same night and time as Megabowl. Even though the events clashed, both had full crowds. Countless morning and evening practices went into this show and the final product was a defining moment for the year. The cast was extremely close and it showed in the performance. The plot included Adelaide, played by senior Michaela Twito, and Nathan Detroit, played by senior Brian Todey, as a couple who had been engaged for 14 years and finally decided to get married even after some hilarious difficulties.

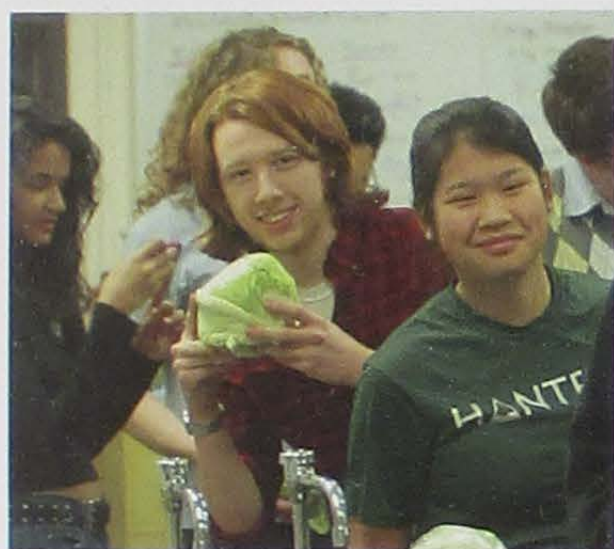

The early morning and late night practices finally paid off when the whole show came together opening night.

Ames High Students ended their Valentines day week by going to the first and only lettuce eating club meeting. Where our students compete to see who can eat a whole head of lettuce the fastest. They also enjoyed each others company while sharing their different types of lettuce.

SENIOR NIGHT

This year's senior night for Ames Hockey was packed. The 9 seniors played with a mindset of winning against the Des Moines Capitals. By the end of the 1st period, Ames was leading 2-0. The game was close, but the Cyclones fell 4-3. It was by far the best game the team had played. At the end of the night the seniors followed the tradition of kissing the ice as their careers came to an end.

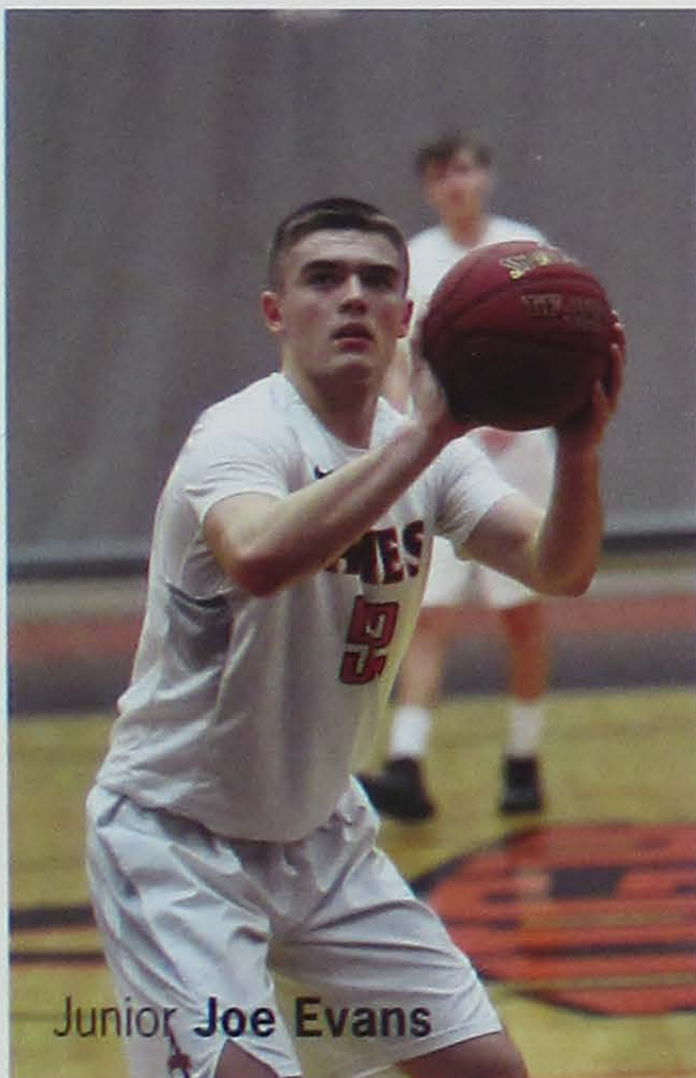

The Ames Cyclones made it to state this year but fell short when they lost against the Capitals in the first round.

New Choir Robes

This year, new robes were purchased for all three of Ames High's choirs. The old robes were over twenty years old, and red. Deciding the choir needed new robes, many people donated to help "attire the choir" in Ames High's own black and orange.

Hunger Banquet

The Annual Hunger Banquet has returned this week. The Hunger Banquet is hosted by SHEPH (Students Helping to Eliminate Poverty and Hunger) and has been around for about 13 years. It raises awareness about hunger and poverty around the world and also fund raises money for SHEPH's Annual Project. Hunger Banquet participants are placed into either part of the upper class or lower class, which is indicated by their tickets. A majority of students are part of the lower class and sit on the floor and eat rice and beans. The lucky few who are part of the upper class sit at a banquet table full of delicious food. The amount of students who are part of the lower upper classes reflects the distribution of wealth in third world countries. A few items are also raffled during the Banquet, and the grand prize was a set of drums from Uganda. "The Hunger Banquet gives people an opportunity to understand and experience hunger on a smaller scale," junior Kavya Raju said. The Hunger Banquet returns every year and continues to be integral part to the Ames High experience.

On Monday the 27th, the Ames High Drill Team had the honor of performing at not one, but two halftime shows during the Girls State Basketball Tournament. The team was very lucky to be chosen and wowed the crowd at Wells Fargo. After a long day of dancing, the girls enjoyed a well earned meal at Centro in Des Moines.

Finishing Fashion Frocks

The Fashion Show club gears up for its annual show by putting the final touches on their creations. They also learn how to press shirts with a custom design. Club members will wear the shirts in the weeks that lead up to the show as a form of advertising.

France

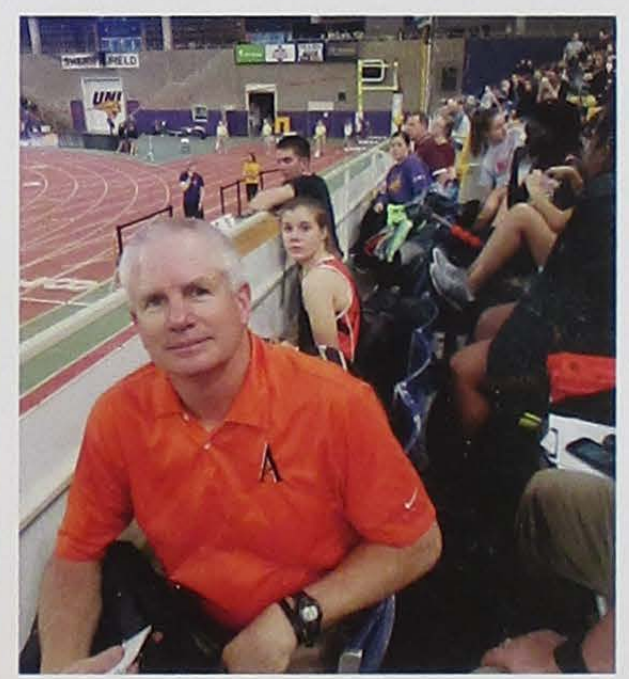

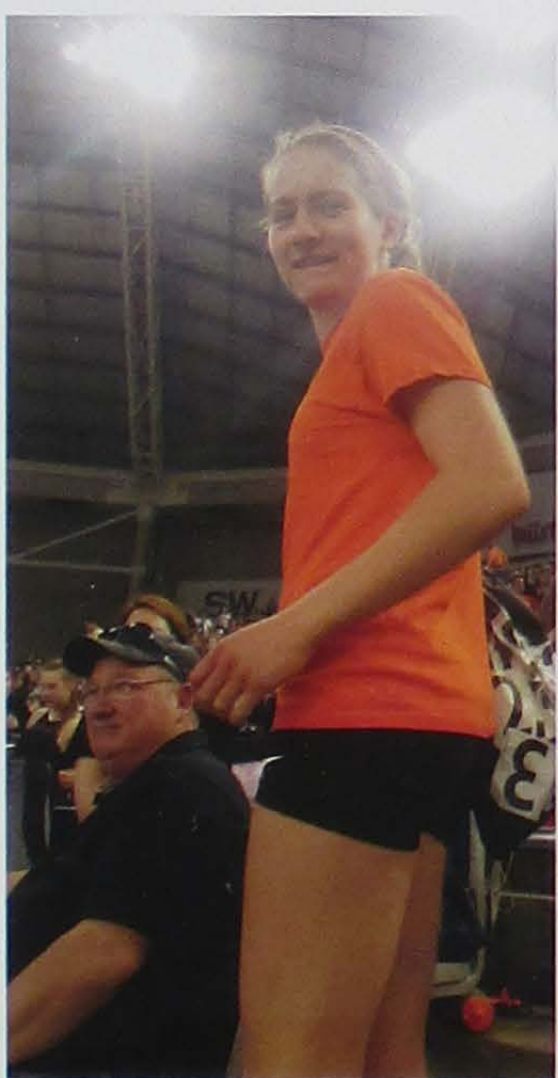

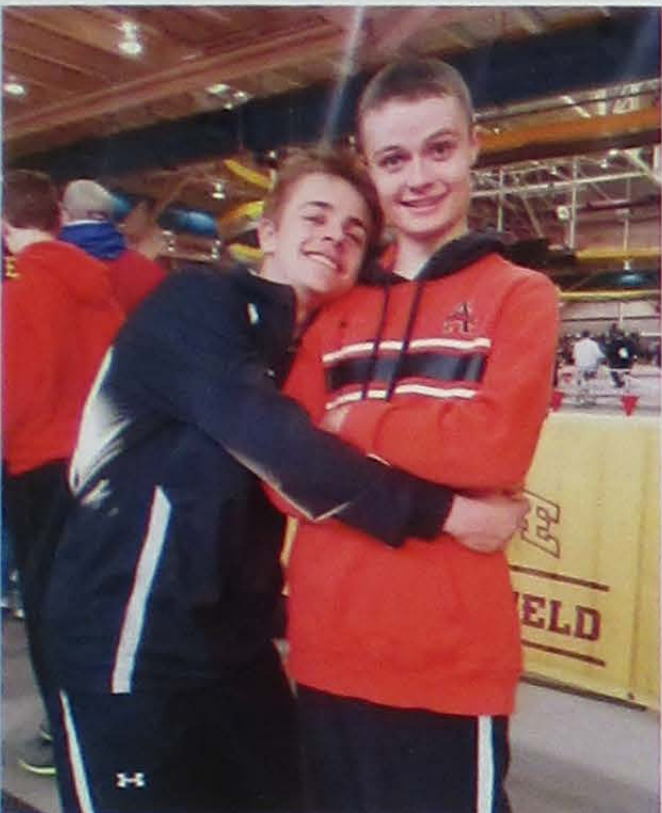

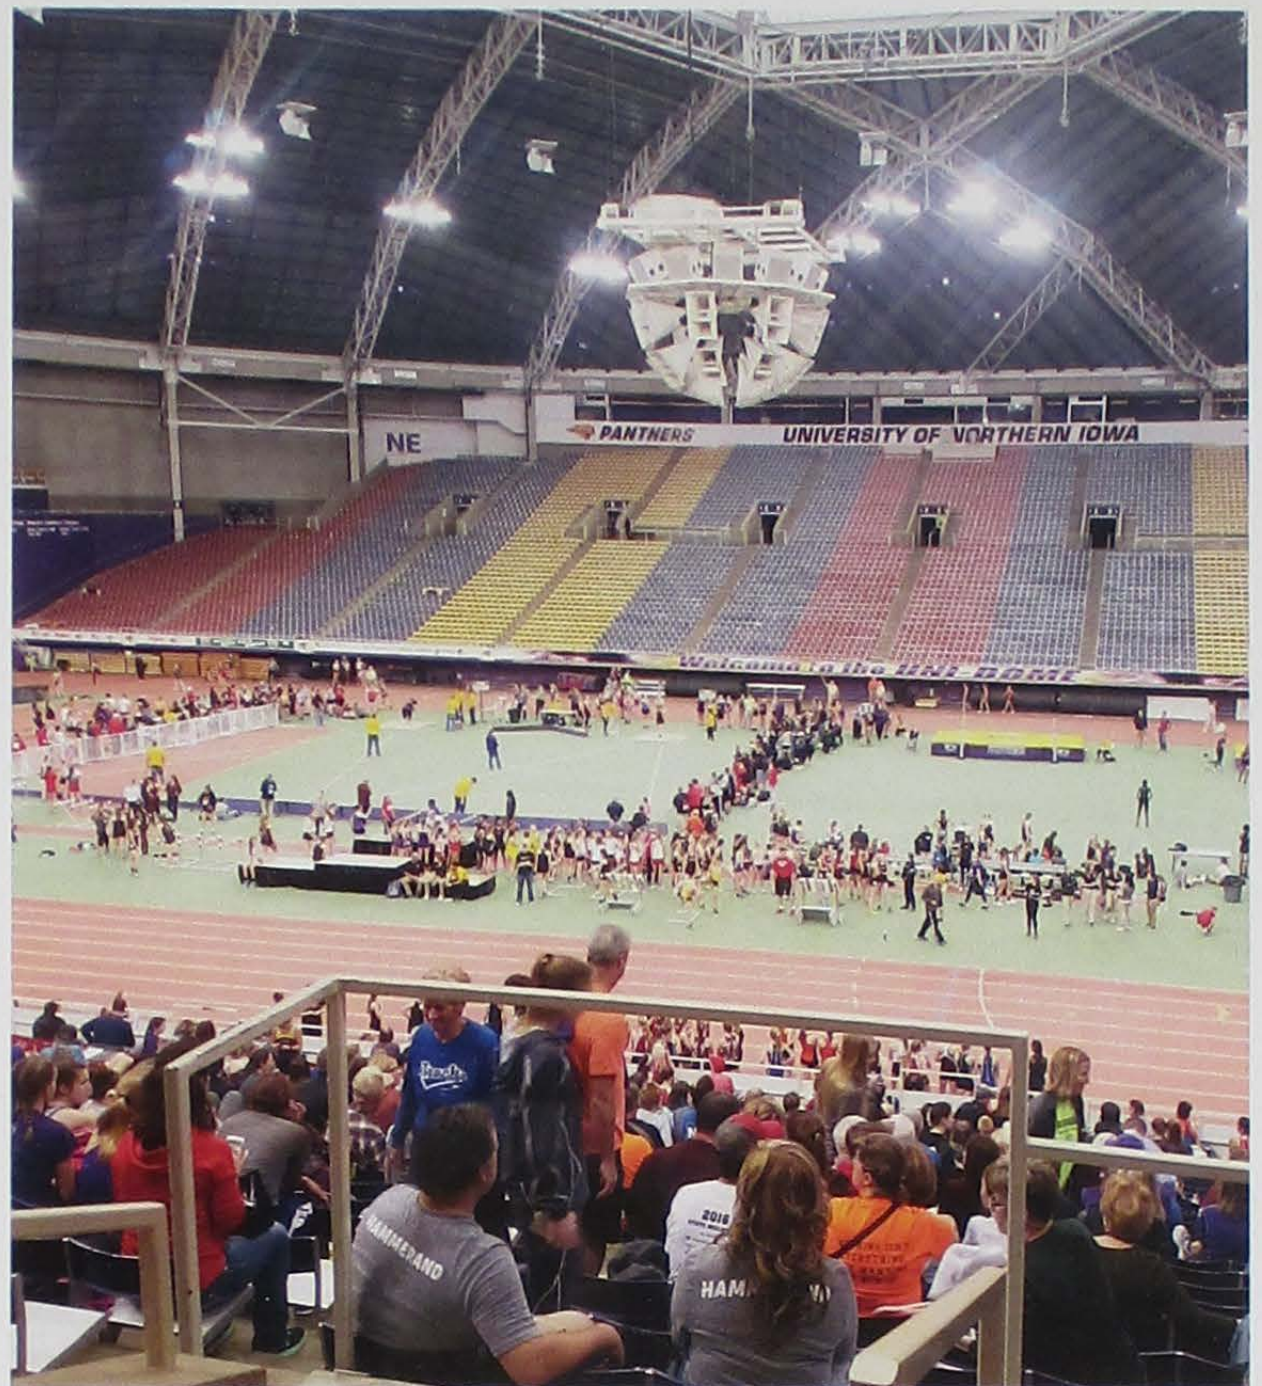

The juniors and seniors in French took their class trip to France during spring break and the week before. This led to many new adventures. Meeting the host families and becoming life long friends was many of the girls' favorite part.

Junior Isabel Ingram remembers going to the mall and joking around with her classmates and their French correspondents. She also has a fond memory of teaching them how to make cookies and how to roll the dough in their hands. Such a simple thing to us was very amusing to them.

"Saying our goodbyes the last day was surprisingly very difficult. Most of us cried and so did our French families. Who knew you could grow so close to people in such little time. I will cherish that moment forever. This trip was really special to me, and I think to all of us," Ingram said.

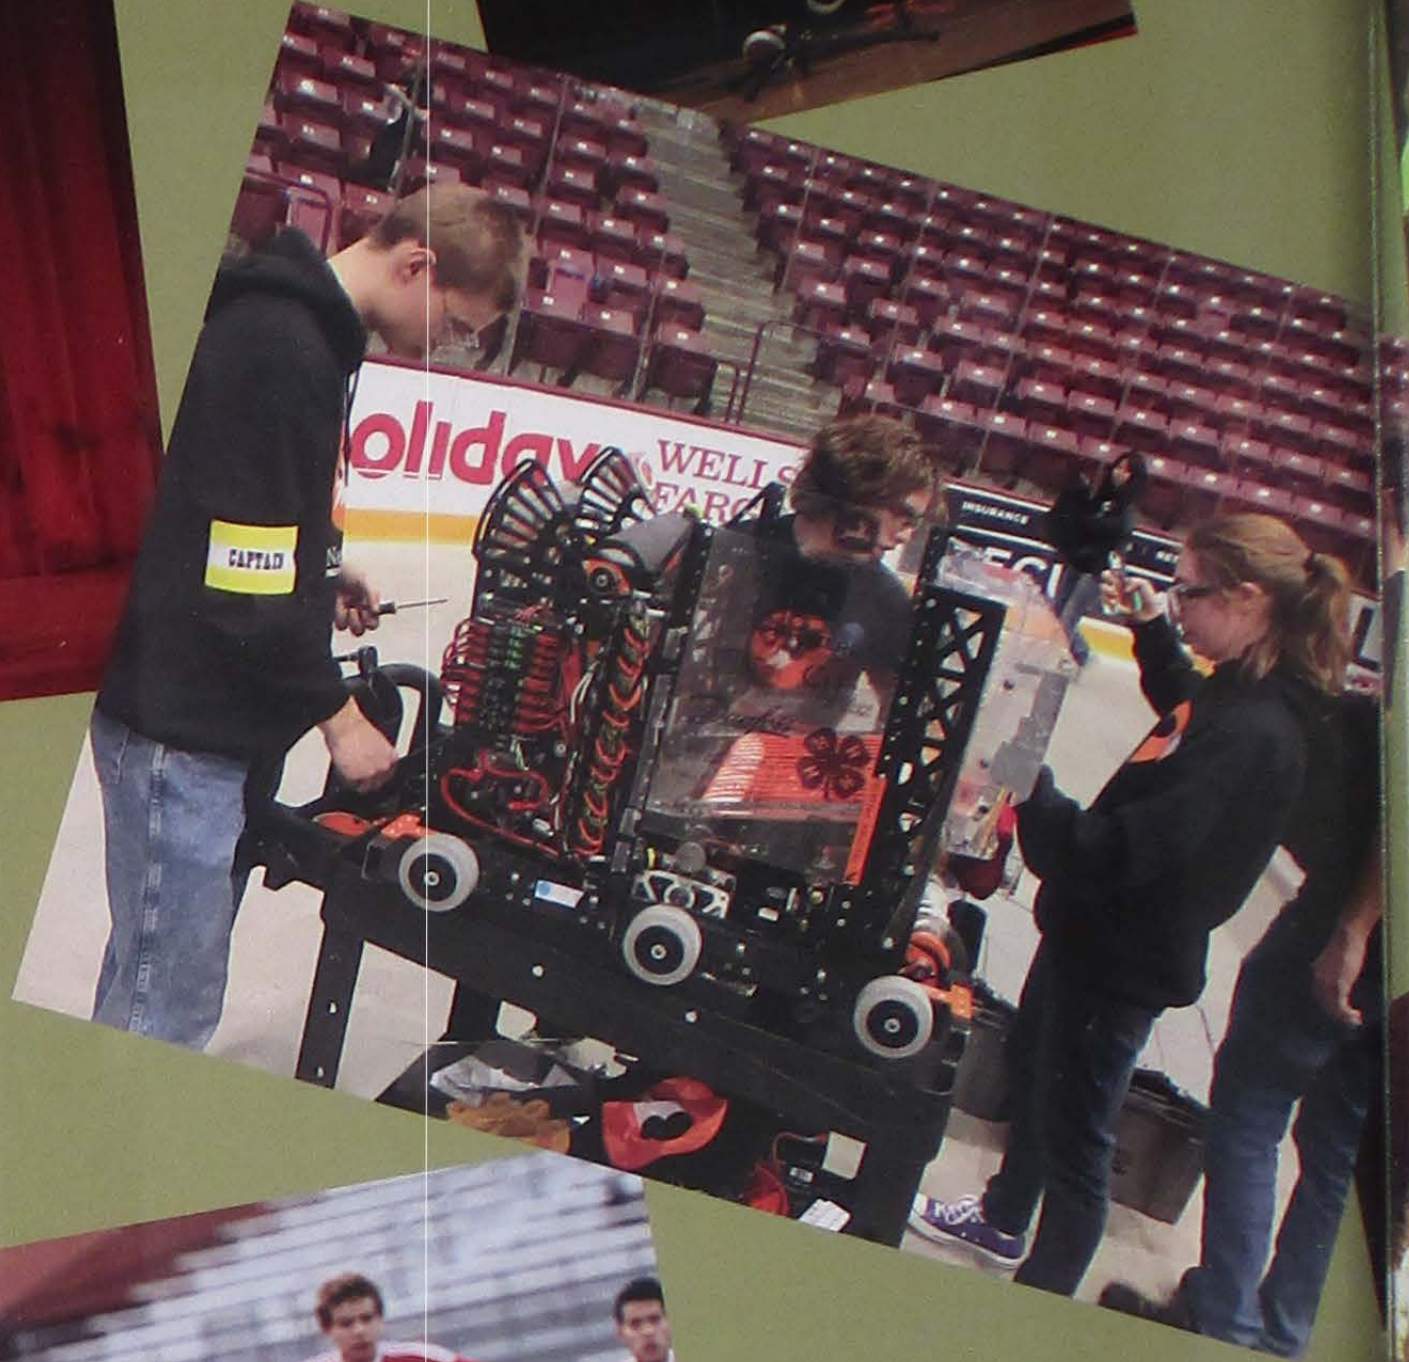

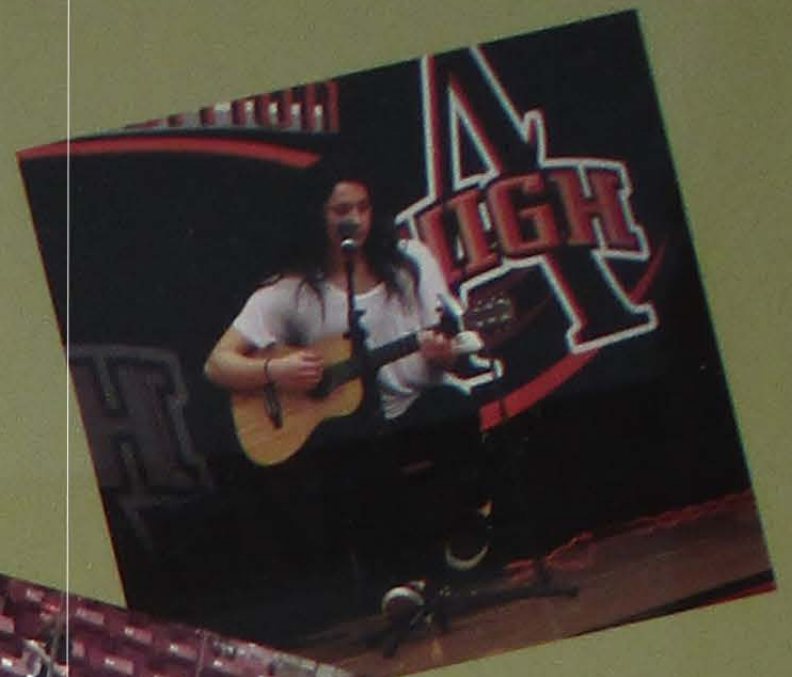

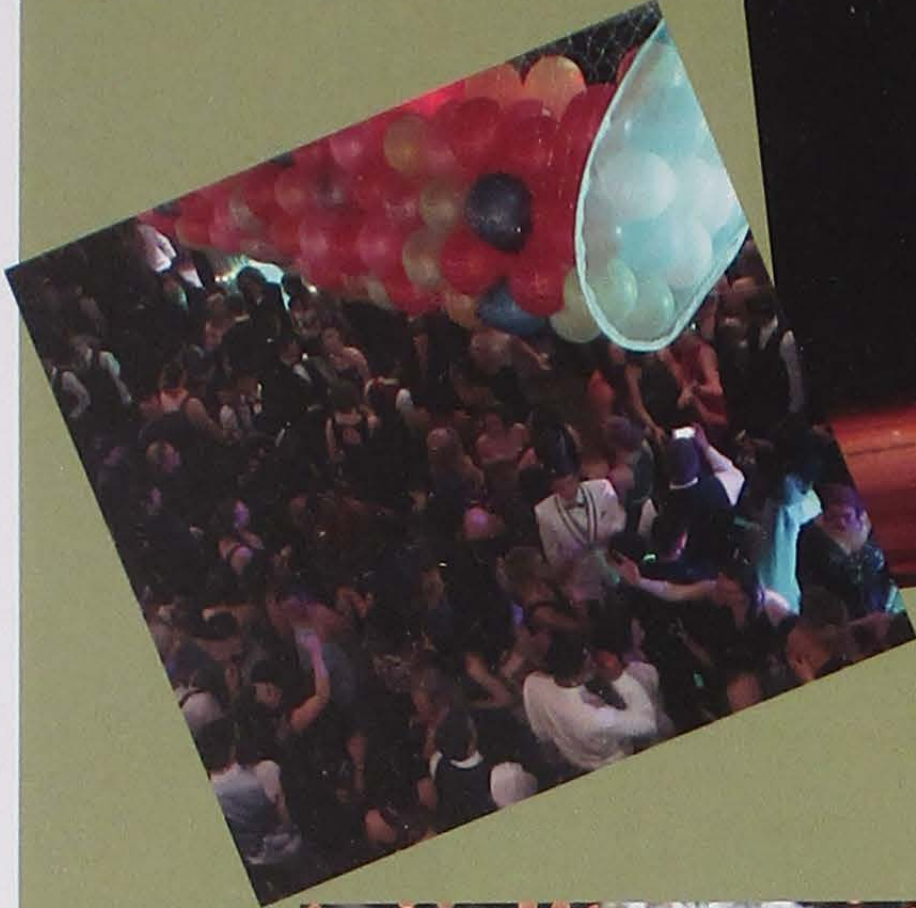

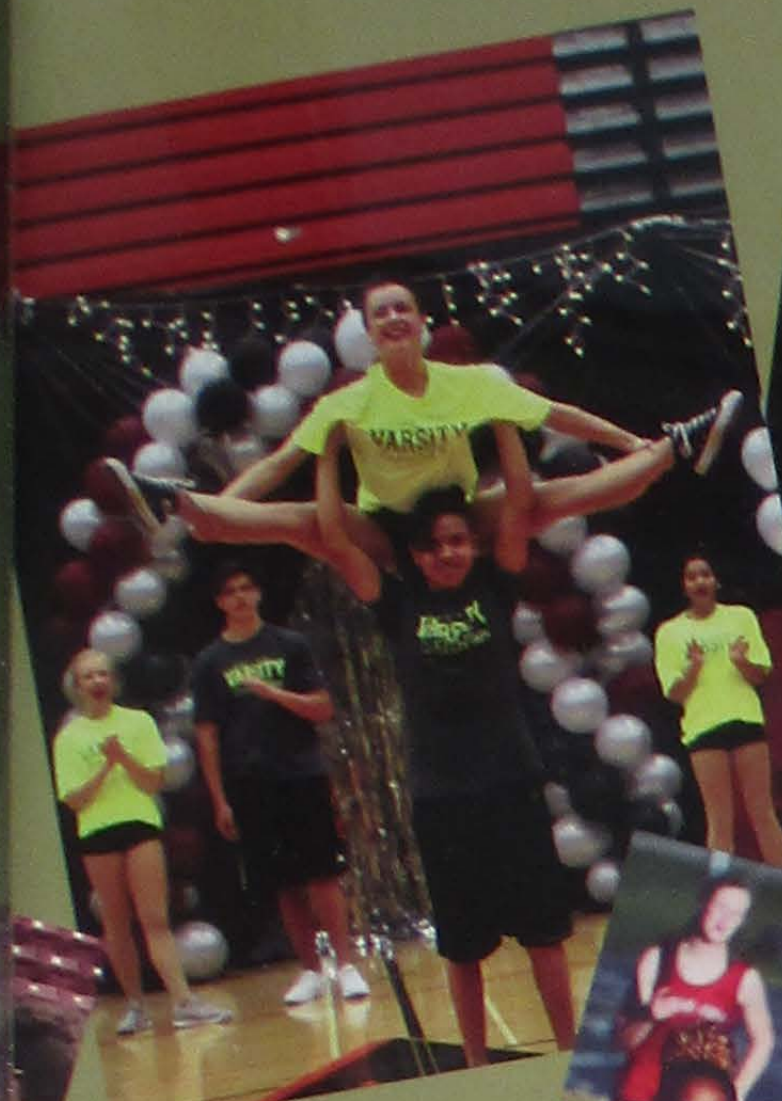

The Juniors and Seniors of Ames High French class took on France for two weeks. They spent time bonding with their host families and visiting some of the most historic monuments France has to offer.

2017 Girls and Boys Track season kicks off at UNI and Wartburg indoor meets. Both teams started well and look forward to strong seasons.

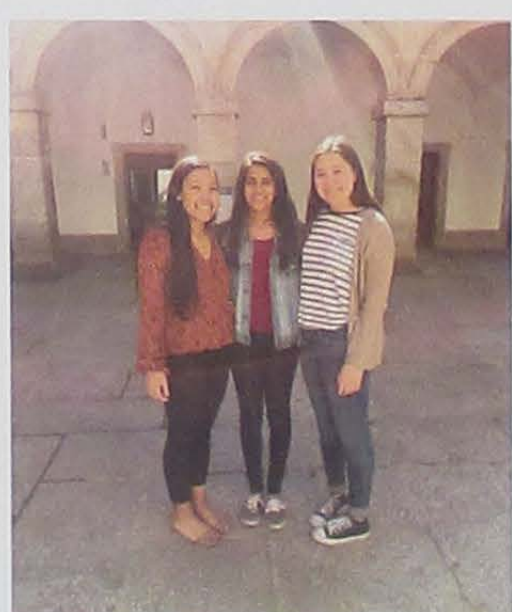

Spring

Spring Break

France Trip

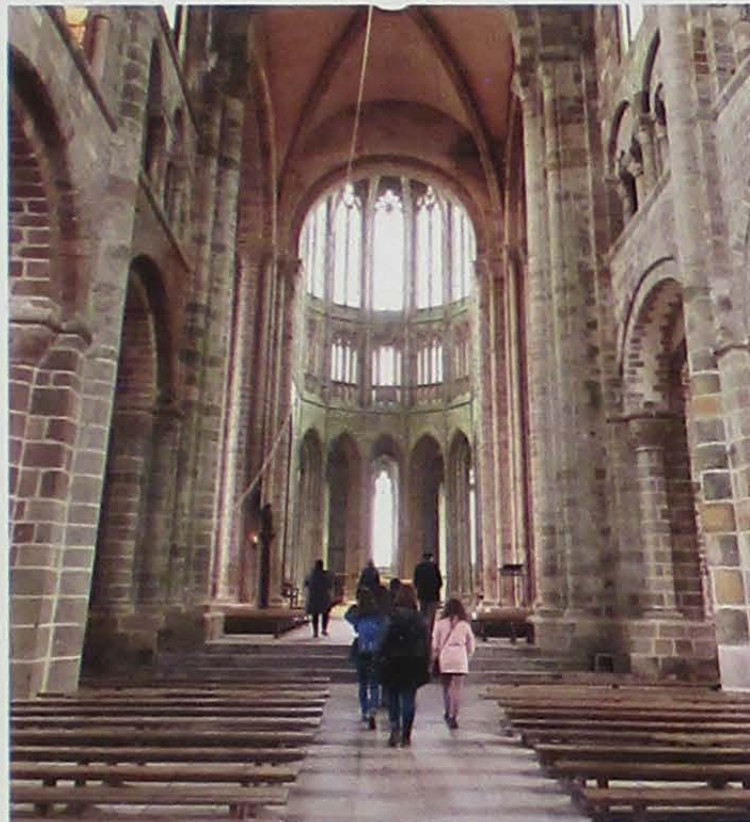

This year approximately 20 students accompanied Spanish teachers Julie Dunkin and Kay Billings to Segovia, Spain. There, they will live with Spanish host families as they immerse themselves in the rich language and culture of the country.

Students also had the opportunity to explore the capital city of Madrid and even the walled, medieval city of Toledo.

Students returned on March 16th raving about the delicious food, the unusual schedule, and the generous people.

This will be Sra. Billings last trip, as she is set to retire this year.

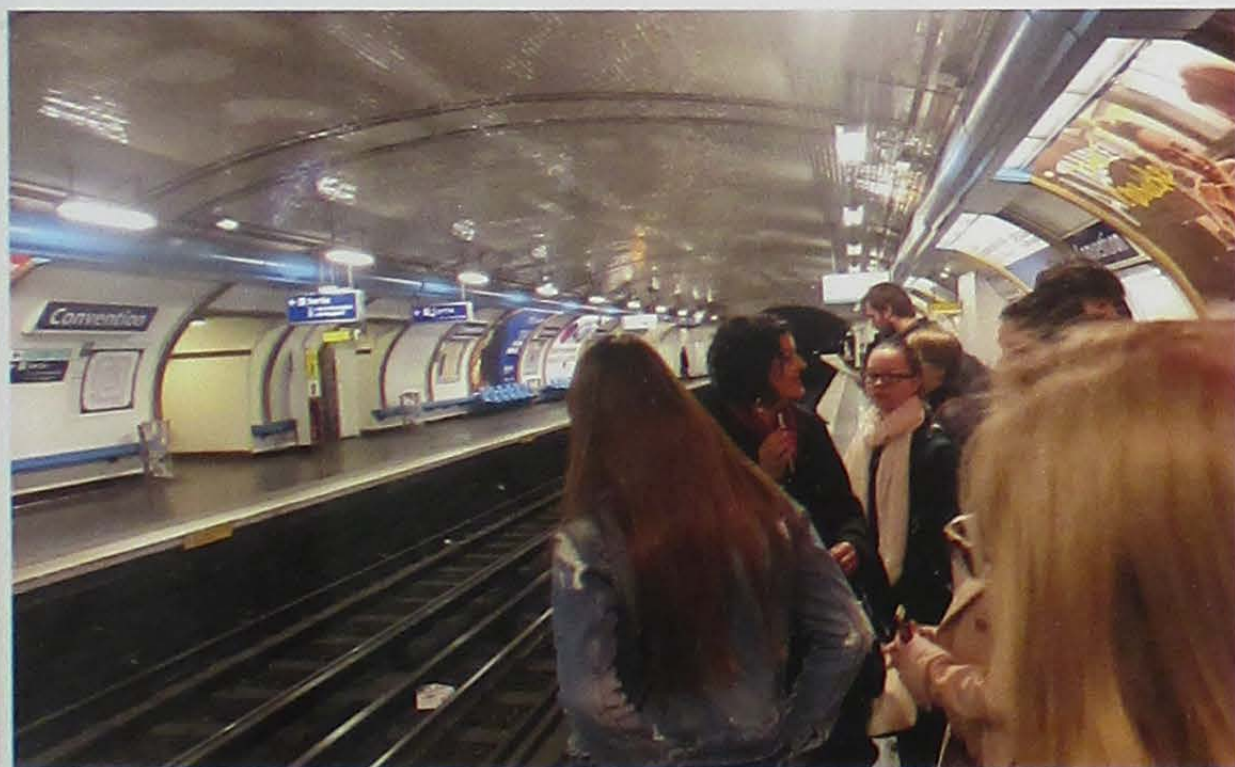

France Trip

The 2017 French Trip consisted of lots of site seeing and new experiences. Students had the opportunity to visit Saumur, France, where they stayed with host families.

Students learned that French people eat quickly and in large quantities because they only eat 3 meals a day. They also learned they are some of the nicest people, despite stereotypes of the opposite.

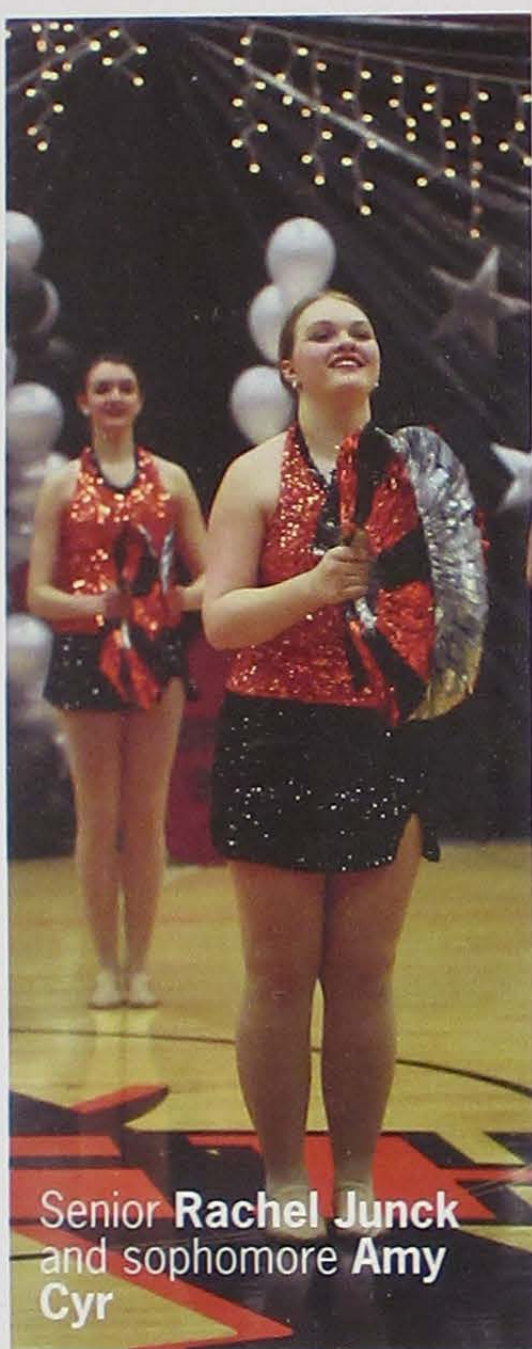

When students traveled to Paris, they saw Notre Dame, Le Louvre, Le Champs-Élysées, and many other famous monuments. They then dined at the local cafés and soaked up the Parisian life style.

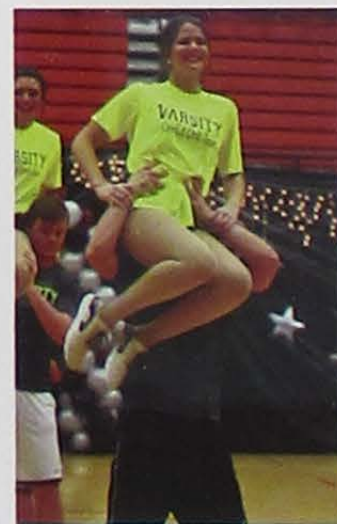

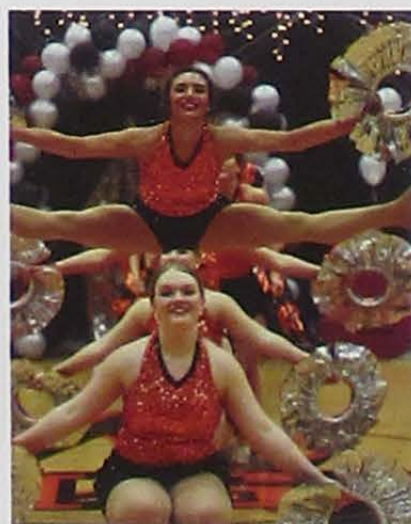

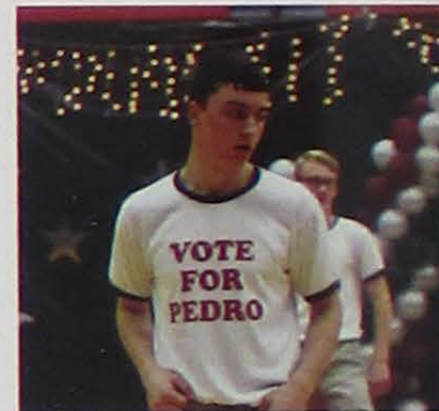

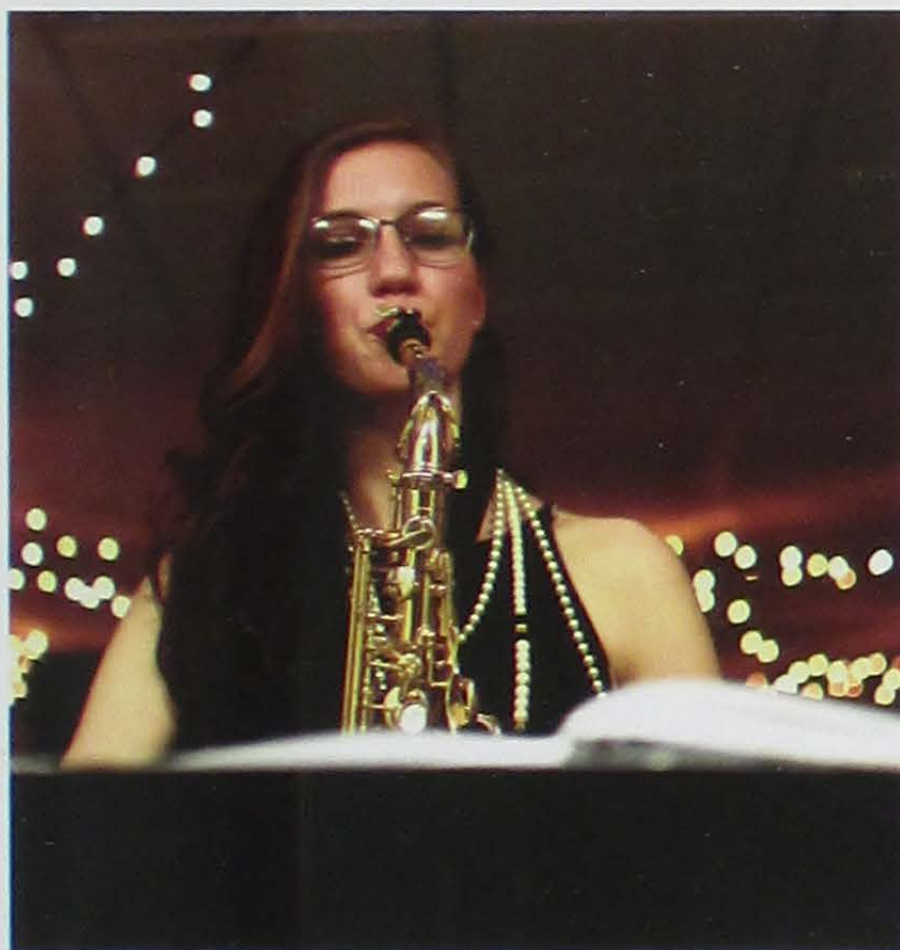

Drill Team

The drill team showed off all their skills and routines in the spring show. Senior Julia Hansen said her favorite routine to do was the "Genie in the Bottle" one because it was fun to perform. She will miss being able to practice so many different types of dance. Of all four years, her favorite memory was winning the state title when performing the hoop dance

Gatsby Party

This year's annual Gatsby Party was a rousing success. The English Department hosts this three-period long event for the sophomore class to teach students about the 1920s and to pique their interest for the required reading of F. Scott Fitzgerald's classic, The Great Gatsby. Involving Advanced Foods in hour'derves and the jazz band for music, it's an all inclusive event!

Senior One Acts

One of the great traditions of Ames High is having senior thespians casting and directing their own one act plays. This year's group only added to the legacy with tremendous performances.

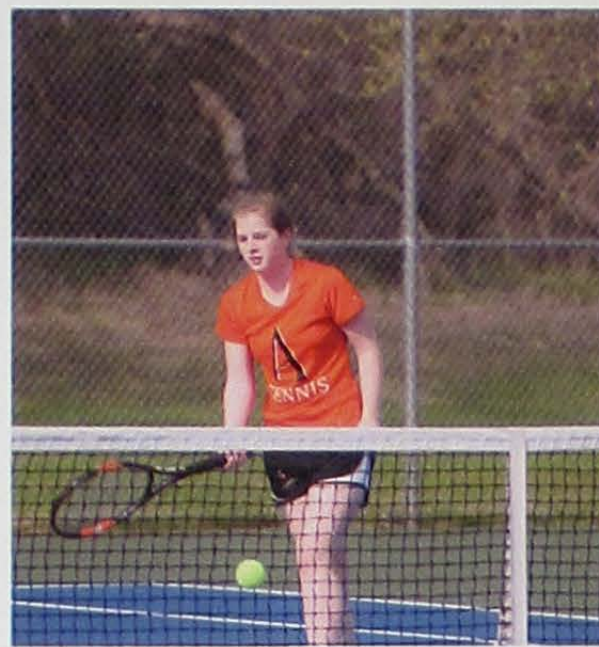

Girls Track

The Girls Track team this year can be summarized in one word: grit. Placed in arguably the toughest conference in the state, the team continues to grind out points to keep themselves relevant at the state level.

"Honestly, I think it all comes from [head coach] Schmaltz. He's kind of the heart of it all. He'll be your biggest critic but also your biggest cheerleader. He just knows how to motivate us to give more than we think we have to give," senior Rosita Lowe said.

This year is rumored to be coach Schmaltz's final year. Someone will have some large shoes to fill next year!

The Other Girls Sports

While the stands are filled for track, few make their way to the tennis courts or golf course to catch our lady Cyclones in action. It's to their detriment.

"We take a lot of pride in what we do," senior Nicole Kelly said. "We don't have a lot of fan support, but cheer each other on, and that's most important."

Those who want to catch a match need only to walk down the sidewalk to tennis courts. All are welcome!

We take a lot of pride in what we do.
- Senior Nicole Kelly

Track Triumphs

This week, Ames High hosts its annual Jim Duea Invite. Athletes from Waukee, Valley, Dowling, Johnston, Roosevelt, Ankeny, and Ankeny Centennial participated in the meet. While the girls placed 6th, it was their 3rd meet of the week and many were either tired or not participating. The notable exception was senior Katelyn Moore who comfortably won the 1500 with a time of 4:48.30. The finish qualifies her for the Drake relays as it is the fifth fastest time in the state this year.

Perhaps no sport outside of baseball and softball work as hard for as little recognition as the golf teams. Because their meets are usually during the school day, they rarely have fans in attendance. "We don't get much attention, but we don't mind. It's an individual sport and we all know that going in," senior Lauren Niehm (pictured above) said.

"Glaze It, Don't Blaze It"

- The Ames Police Department's adapted this as their slogan for their marijuana prevention event, that took place on April 20. The Ames Police Department passed out glazed doughnuts to the students of Ames High, in an effort to prevent the use of marijuana by students. Their campaign took off locally and even trended on YouTube for a while!

Tennis

April is when tennis really starts to get into full swing. With weather that can vary from freezing to unbearably hot from day to day, the teams brace themselves and pack clothes for every possible contingency.

Seniors display their "Food Fest" English projects during Plus Period. Food Fest aimed to educate students about healthy eating and the effects of wasteful food production and consumption. Several groups provided healthy snacks samples to accompany their presentations.

SportsStudies

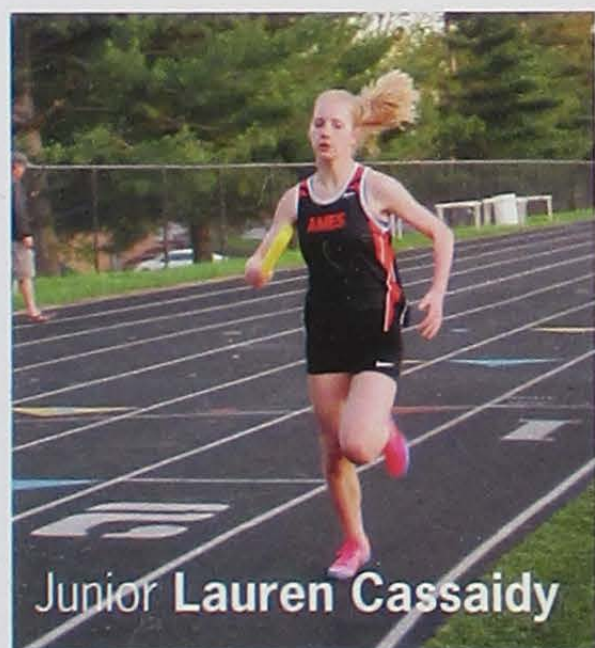

There's a pattern and a flow to every school year. There are times where football is king, times where Madrigal literally runs the halls, times when All-State band and choir are the buzz of the school, or when everyone HAS to go see the musical. This is the time of year when all the spring sports converge and seemingly everyone has a sports commitment, either as a participant or an attender. The problem? No one seems to inform the teachers, who also have a ton of projects and papers nearing due dates to beat the end of the year. It's one of the busiest stretches of the year, but also one of the most memorable. Here are a few highlights from the week.

Music

May starts the rush of "lasts" for the year - last game; last project; last homeroom; last concert. It can sometimes be stressful, as all these events come within days of one another. It can also be inspiring, though, to stop and reflect on one's accomplishments over the last year. While at time bittersweet, it is a wonderful opportunity to embrace the moment one is in and to savor the pay off from an entire year's worth of work. For band and choir, this meant harmonious nights of beautiful music.

Many students were sad to learn that Mr. Linn is retiring this year. After 26 years of service, Mr. Linn is walking away from teaching to enter the next phase of his life. In this case, that will be serving as Music Program Director at Urbandale United Church of Christ and pursuing piano gigs in the region. He will be missed.

Mr. Linn always put the kids first. He is as beloved by students as he is respected by his colleagues.
- Teacher Del Schmidt

On Thursday the girls competed in the conference meet, pitting them, once again, against the toughest field in the state. The girls placed 6th on the day, which is about where they expected to be. They know the real battle, though, will come next week at districts. There, the girls will need to pull some personal bests if they hope to qualify for state. This particular meet was marked by senior leadership as they showed the underclassmen the grit and determination necessary to rise to your best when it matter the most.

[Senior] Ryan Weiss taught me something out there today. She overcame so much to perform at her highest level.
- Junior Isabel Ingram

Soccer Scores

One of the more pleasant surprises of the year has come in the form of the boys and girls soccer teams. Both are situating themselves for a run into the post season, and attendance and interest is at an all time high.

"We're having a great year, and it's fun seeing people come out," senior Divyesh Kumar said. "It exactly how I want to close out my senior year."

The girls are experiencing similar success. "Maybe this is the year," junior Kelly Friedrich said. "We cam up just short in basketball this year, so I'd love to make it happen with soccer!"

District Champs!

In what can only be described as a stunning display of speed and athleticism, the Boys Track team was the district championship this year. It is their 3rd title in the last four years.

Golf Gains

This year's girls golf team is a mishmash of experience and inexperience, making for a relaxed and collaborative golfing experience. Seasoned pros like Seniors Lauren Niehm and Erin Prohaska bring skill and insightful advice to newcomers like freshman Tessa Huff. Newer players bring excitement and energy to the team and keep practice lighthearted and fun. Overall, the season ended on a positive note, and the team members and coaches are looking forward to next year to build the team's record.

State Track

On a windy, rainy day, the qualifiers of both boys and girls track team competed against the best runners and jumpers in the state.

Out of nineteen total events, ten from the girls team and fifteen from the boys were able to snag a spot at the 2017 Coed State Track Meet. Two of those qualifying events from the girls team and three from the boys team placed at the state meet, including first place winner in the high jump, Senior Choul Choul.

When asked if he expected to win first place for high jump, Choul replied with a blunt "yes." He was the only competitor able to clear 6'5 at his first attempt, winning the event with ease. "I knew that if I was well prepared for this meet then I would be able to win."

After the boys won their District meet, the AHS girls and boys competed at the State Track Meet. Choul Choul won the State championship title in High Jump.

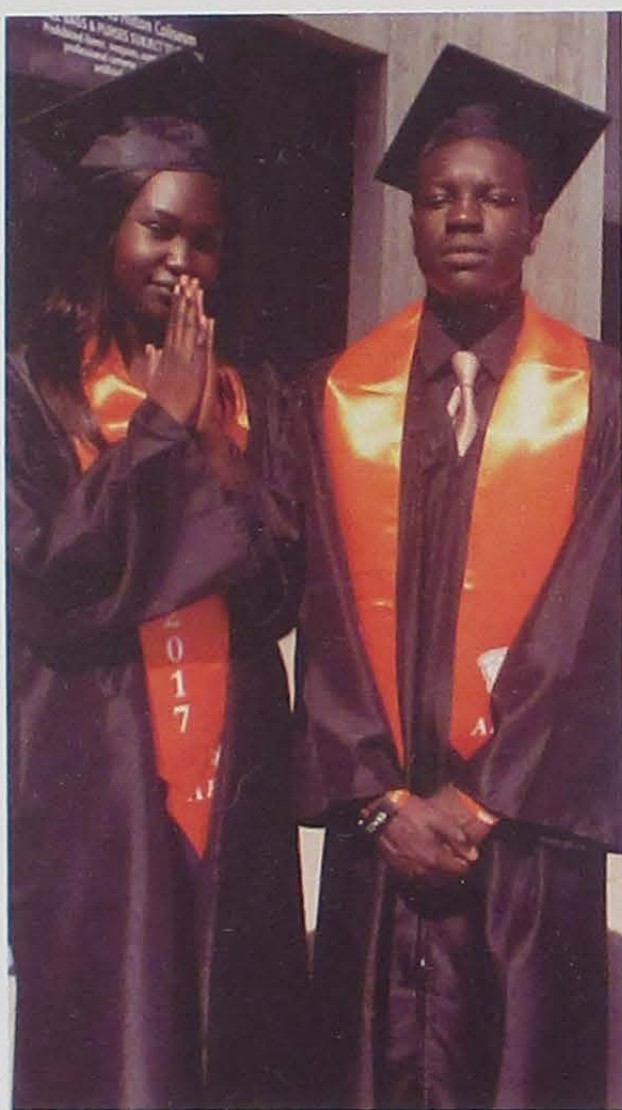

“ Post season soccer was in full gear for both the boys and girls teams. Both feel they have a chance at State. ”

Senior Sendoff

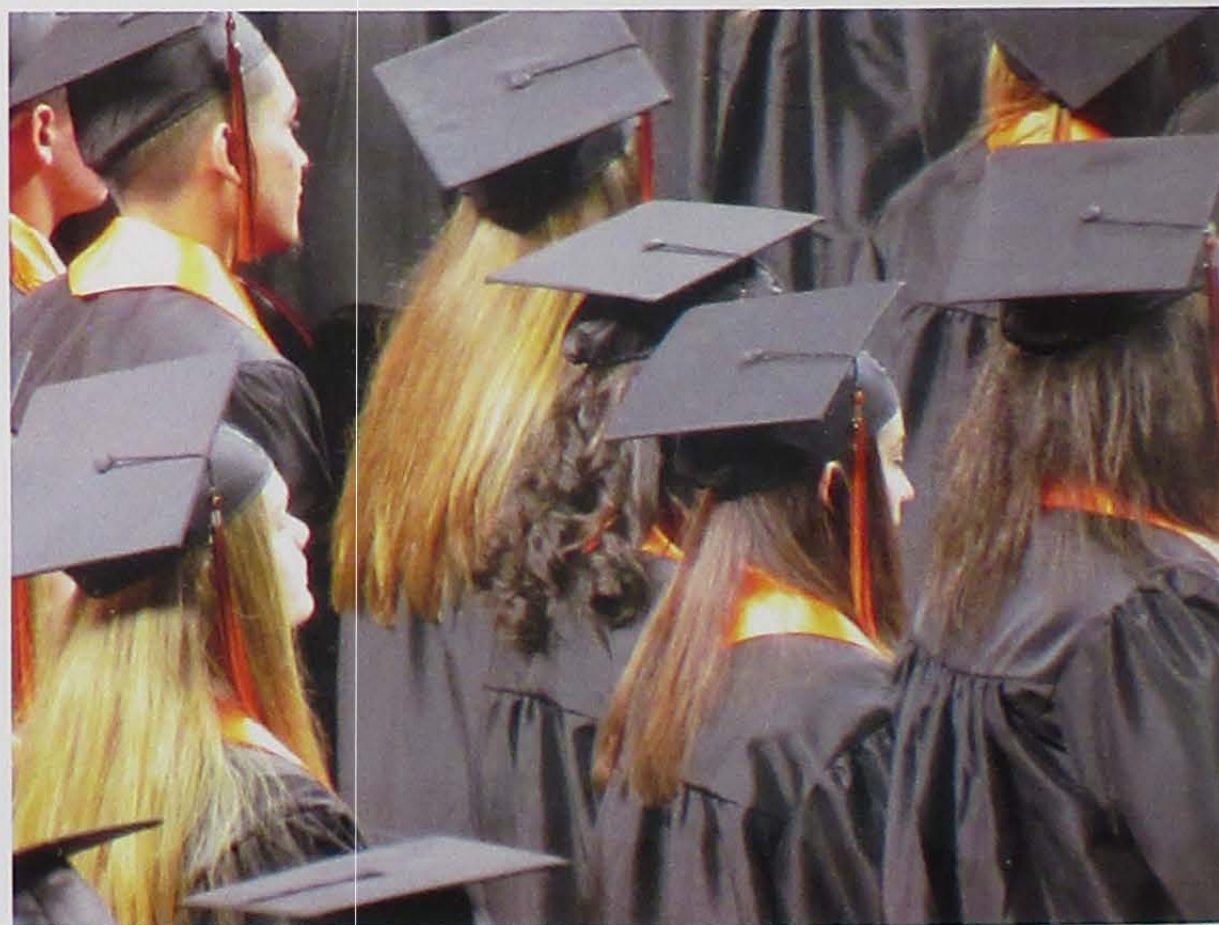

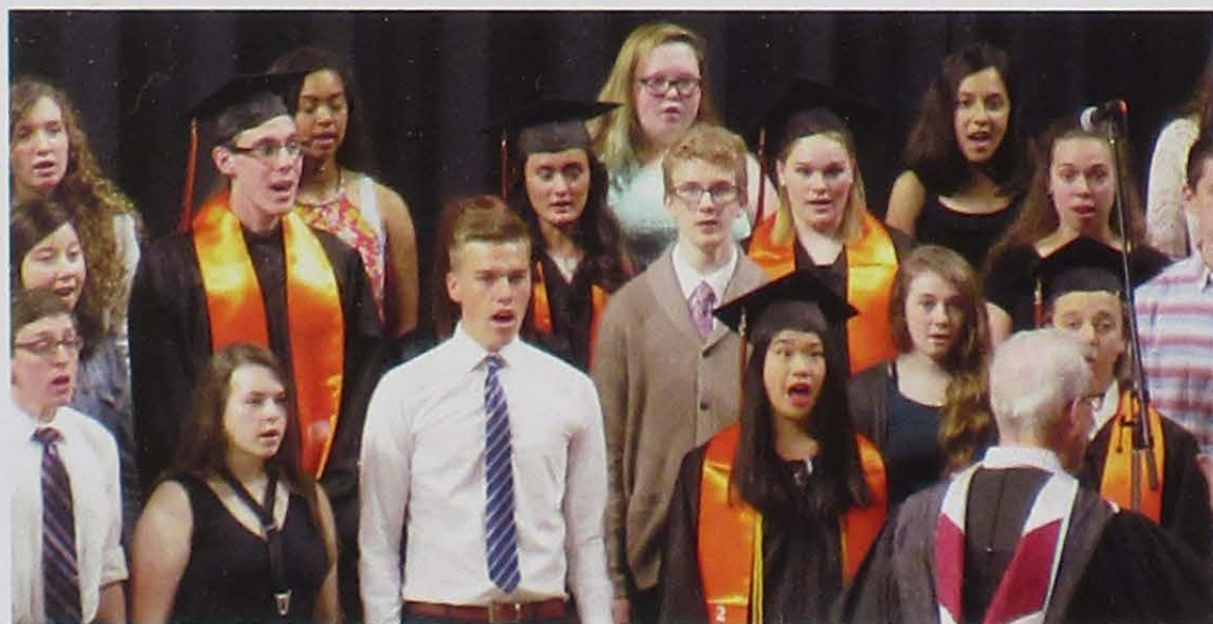

Like so many classes before them, the seniors' last week was filled by mixed emotions: excitement, relief, panic, fear, anxiety, and pure, unadulterated joy.

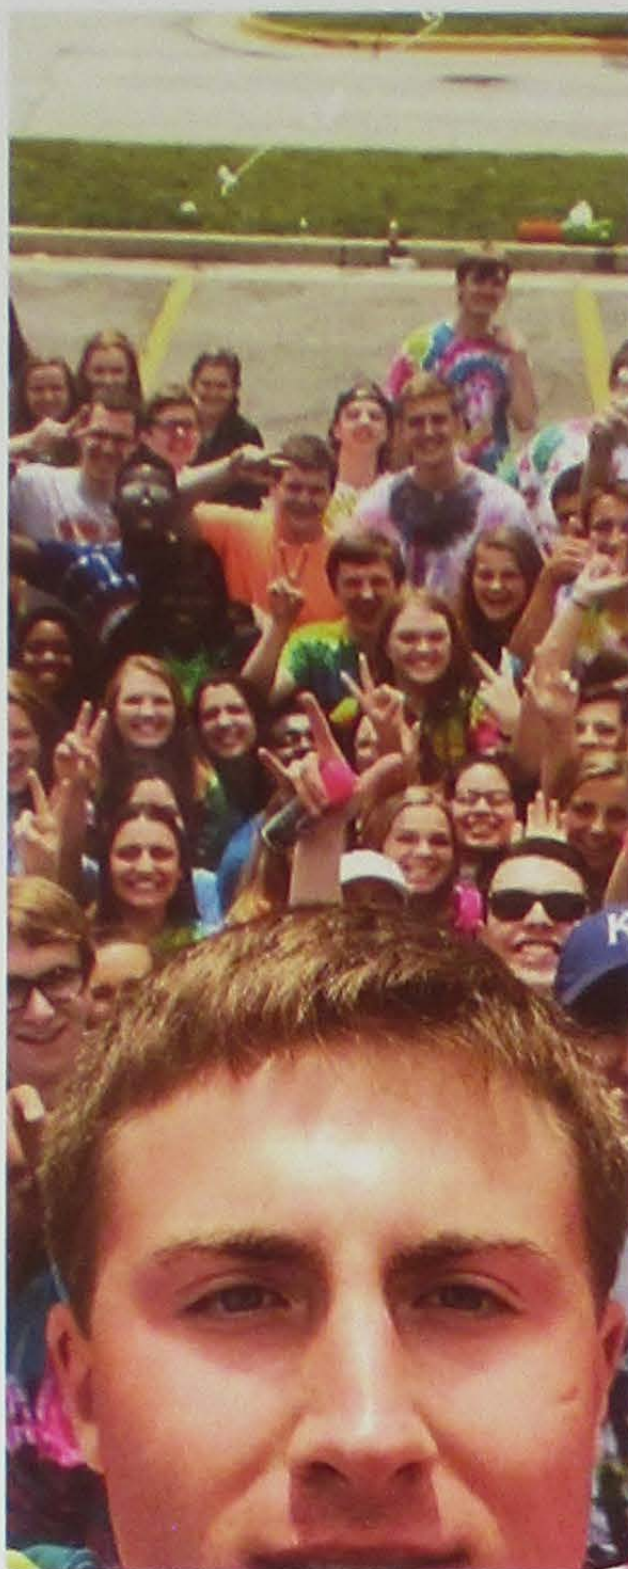

Spence was on high alert as he reminded seniors to finish well and to be mindful of their legacies. The senior class responded in kind, showing the class and respect we have come to expect from them.

The halls and parking lot seemed empty by the end of the week, and a new recognition settled onto the building: it's almost summer!

One of the emerging traditions over recent years is to have seniors move to the front of the school after the countdown to douse students leaving the building. Water balloons and water guns are go-to, though this year also featured flour and shaving cream.

One of the traditions that Spence altered when he came to Ames was trading the balloon drop with a confetti cannon. Like all new things, people were initially critical of this change, but it has become the symbolic highlight of the entire ceremony.

MADDIE TUGGLE

Do what you love, make the world a better place, be happy! We love you, Mom, Dad, Laurel, Hannah, Ben, and Dobby

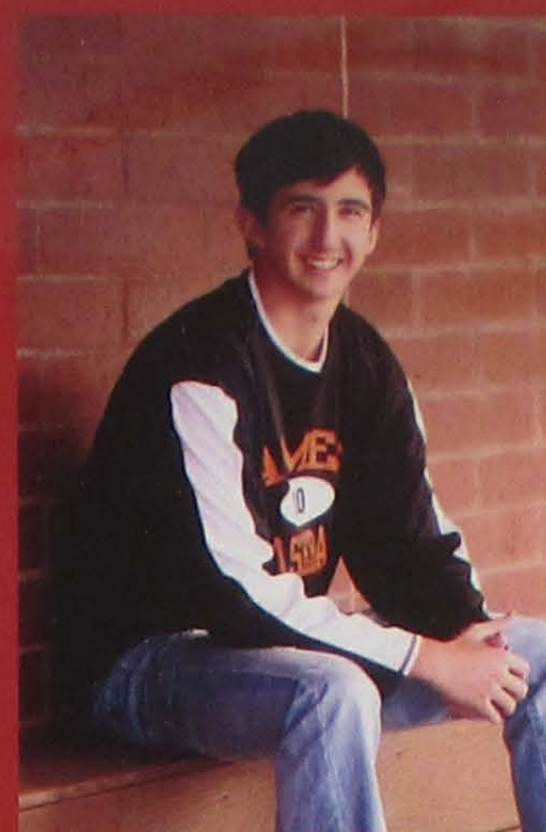

CHARLOTTE LENKAITIS

From your very first day of school, you were all attitude. Then, as you are now, you were ready to take on the world. We were excited but apprehensive to let you go, but you have shown us that "you got this!" It has been a thrill to share the ride. We are so very proud of you and the person who you have become. Wee Hoo!

Love, Mom and Dad

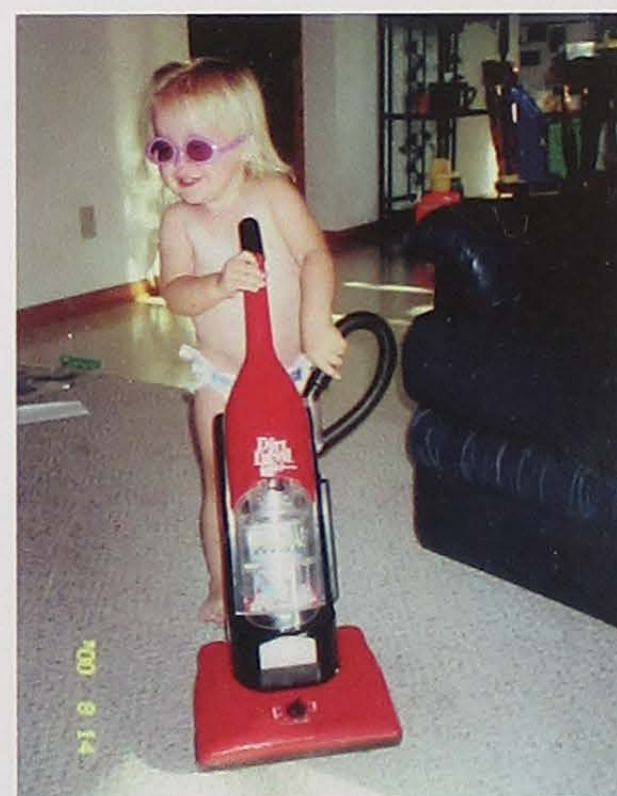

MICHAEL DIBLASI

From Little League to the Big Leagues! You're our mvp! Congratulations, slugger! Good luck at Iowa!

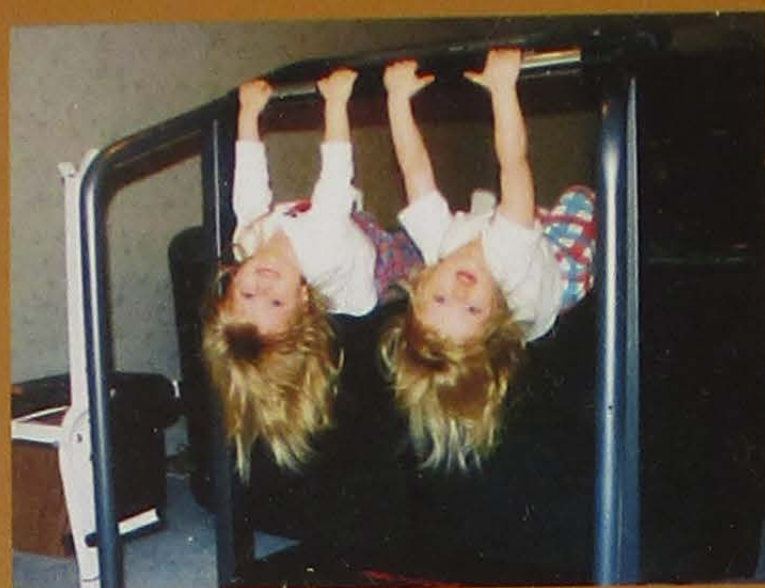

Love you, mom and dad.

JANE JOINER

Way to clean up, Jane! Congratulations! Love, Mom, Dad, Katie and Thelma Lou

RACHEL & TAYLOR JUNCK

Congrats, Taylor and Rachel!!!
Love, Mom, Dad and Scott

RYLEE GIBBS

"All of our dreams can come true - if we have the courage to pursue them." -Walt Disney

We love you, Rylee!

Mom, Dad, Regan and Kailey.

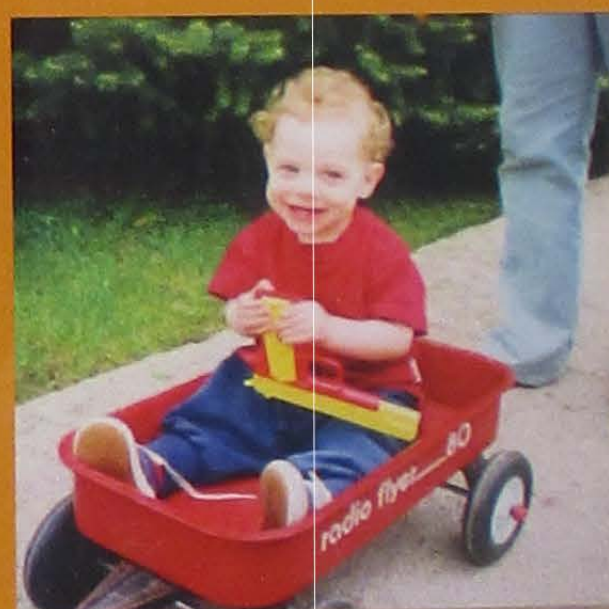

LAUREN NIEHM

Congratulations, Lauren! We are so proud of you and all that you have accomplished. We can't wait to see what the future holds for you.
Good luck at ISU!!

Love, Mom, Dad and Lindsey

MARCUS REECY

Though you may run far and wide, just make sure your feet
can always carry you home.

Love,
Mom and Dad.

ETHAN HAHN

So proud of everything you have accomplished. Keep up the hard work.
Love, Mom, Dad, and Kaylee.

ERIC STEYER

Congrats, Eric! We are SO PROUD of you!

Love, Mom, Dad,
and Jamie

BEN TULP

Never be afraid to march to your own beat. Chase your dreams, take risks
and conquer the world.
We are proud of you.

Love Mom, Dad, Ethan
and Nadia

ANDREW BRYANT

Andrew, I was so blessed to share your high school years with you. I'll miss you stopping by random times
for food, money, or just to say hi. To these memories I will hold, with my blessing you now go, and always remember the paths that lead home. Adapted from The Last Goodbye by Billy Boyd, et al.

Godspeed, Mom & Dad

Eva, We love you, and we are so very proud of you!

Ephesians
3:14-21

Love, Dad, Mom, Grace, and Claire

NIKKI BREON

Congratulations, Nikki! Best wishes for a bright future. You have worked hard and make us very proud!

Love Always, Mom, Dad, and Lindy

EMMA BRUNGARDT

Congratulations,
Emma. We love you!

- Mom, Dad, and Elijah

Congratulations, dear Seniors, and thank you for sharing your love of dance with me through the years. "To dance is to live; to live is to dance."

MADISON PHILLIPS

Congratulations, Madison! We are so proud of you!
Love, Dad, Mom, Kinsey, and Colton

NICOLE KELLY

We have watched you as you have grown from our precious little girl full of laughter and smiles into a woman of beauty ready to face the world. You are an awesome example of God's love in the way you act and treat others.

We love you, Mom, Dad, Megan, Brandon, and Nathan

OMAR KUSOW

Congratulations, Omar!

ZOE LENZ

We always knew you were going places... We can't wait to see where you go next. Good luck at Iowa State!
Love, Mom, Dad, and Zane

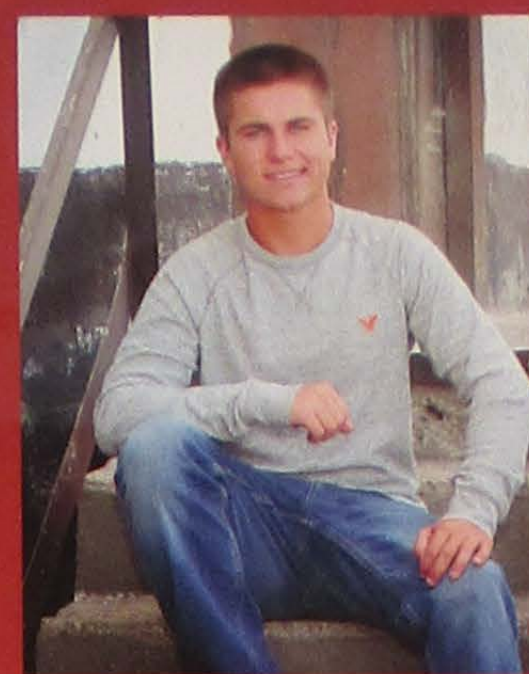

JUSTIN SWENSON

Congratulations, Justin! Ride your dreams wherever they take you.

Love Mom, Dad and Zach.

TYLER WIERSON

Tyler, you have given us so many reasons to be proud of the young man you've become!

You have filled our home with lots of excitement and fun times. Our hearts will always hold dear those cherished memories. Remember that we will be here for you and will love you always!

Much love, Mom, Dad, Matt, Chelsea, Aaron and Ava.

"In everything you do, put God first, and He will direct you and crown your efforts with success." Proverbs 3:6

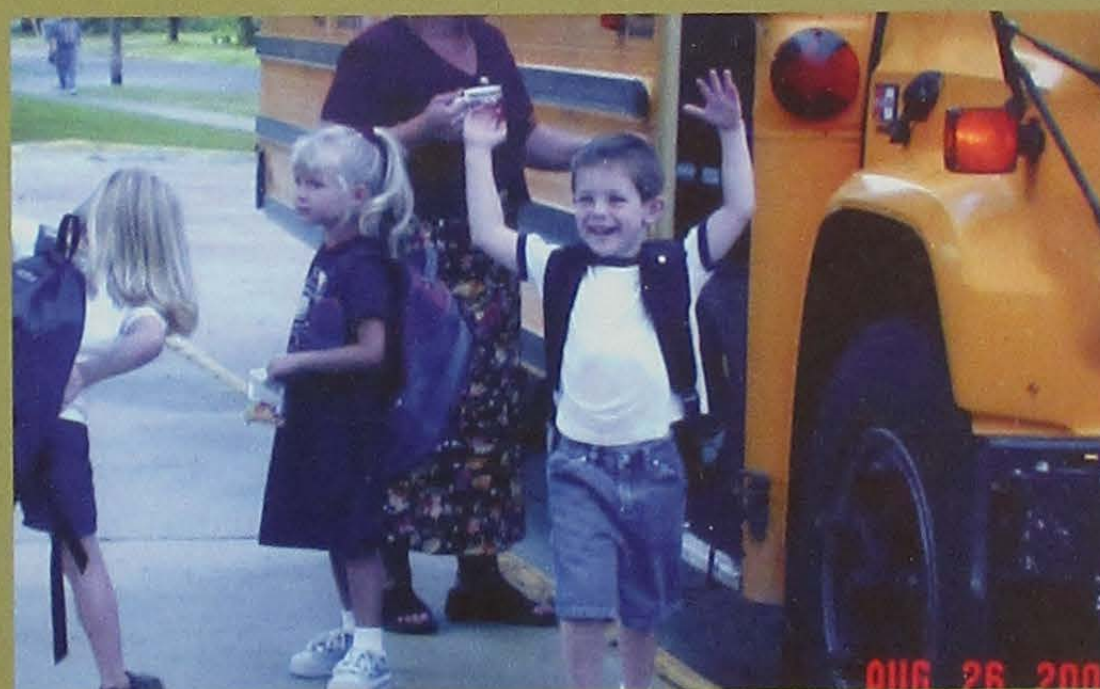

ALEX POFFENBERGER

Alex, being a graduate is something to be very proud of and you have achieved that with your sheer dedication and your hard work. We are so very proud of you and know you will continue to do great things. Congratulations!

Love Mom and Dad

ISAAK SCHMITT

This picture says it all. Hopefully you show as much excitement about your last day of High School as you did on your first day of Kindergarten. Congratulations!!

Love,
Dad, Mom and Ella
